Bellefonte Republican.

Established in 1869.} "Let us see to it that a Government, of the People, for the People, and by the People, shall not perish from the Earth."---A. LINCOLN. {Terms: $2.00 per annum.

VOL. XII. BELLEFONTE, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 28, 1880. NO. 17.

Bellefonte Republican.

EDWARD T. TUTEN, - - Editor.

Terms, $2.00 per annum in Advance

FOR PRESIDENT,

[The choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania, subject to the decision of the National Convention]

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE,

OF MAINE.

"I wish to speak for the millions of all political parties, and in their name to declare that the Republic must be strong enough, and shall be strong enough to protect the weakest of its citizens in all their rights."—JAMES G. BLAINE.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

PETER HERDIC was the best bidder at the assignee's sale of his property at Williamsport the other day.

IF the reports respecting the expected results of the coming census of the city of Pittsburg be true, that flourishing community will take rank among the great centres of population, capital, trade and industry in the country, with a good prospect of disputing position with Baltimore, Boston and New Orleans. In all probability it will take precedence of New Orleans and Baltimore, with a fair promise of beating Cincinnati. Yet the census officially will not recognize this fact, because Pittsburg is reported separately in consequence of the failure of consolidation.

IT IS NOT alone in San Francisco that the notion "the Chinese must go" appears to prevail. In New York city last week a "Celestial" was compelled to go—to Blackwell's Island for one month, because objecting to the actions of some boys who, day after day, threw stones through the windows of his laundry, he lay in wait for them and captured one little miscreant. It is not alleged that Kong Hing did anything to the captive beyond detaining him in a room for a short time, yet a technical case of illegal arrest was supposed to be made out, and as Blackwell's Island laundry is probably in a demoralized condition, the wretched Chinaman must "washee, washee" there, without pay, for thirty days. If the Court of Pekin happens to hear of this transaction, there may be an international difficulty over a small boy and a cobble stone, before which the "key of a garden gate," which brought about the Crimean war, may fade into insignificance. The men with pigtails ought to have some cance of justice in this free country.

THE Lancaster Intelligencer states that a passport and circular letter of introduction have been issued at the department of State to Hon Jeremiah S. Black, of York, who expects to sail for Europe with his wife and granddaughter, Miss Shunk, on the 24th. This is the first visit of Judge Black to Europe, and in speaking on the subject he says he has always had a desire to see three things, above all others, in England: first, an English Assize court in session; second, Runymede, the historic spot upon which the English barons wrung from King John the Magna Charta; and third, an English horse race. He says that of course there are many other things of interest both in England and on the Continent, especially in England, whose history is so interwoven with that of the colonies of North America up to their separation from the parent government, and subsequently by ties of kinship, that there are also many attractions in the way of art, scientific and governmental institutions of the Continent to interest an intelligent observer. Yet the three things mentioned have always struck him with a peculiar curiosity. Mr. Evarts stated that it afforded him much pleasure to accord to him a circular letter, and that he had no doubt he would enjoy a pleasant journey. Judge Black expects to return about the 1st of December next.

Fading Hopes.

It has been claimed with great apparent truth that the Democratic leaders desire the nomination of General Grant by the Republicans at Chicago, because that with such an opponent they may stand some chance of success. The antipathy of the people to electing any man to the office of President of the United States more than two terms, the Democratic leaders hope will draw enough Republican votes, in case Grant is the candidate, to elect some decent Democrat, if such an one can be found for their use. For a time it seemed as though their hopes might be realized. Pennsylvania and New York were captured for Grant through the shrewdness of party leaders; his own State of Illinois was counted as certain for him, and these, with the solid South, would secure his nomination. But this once formidable third term combination has been seriously shattered by the events of the past few weeks. As it stood before this time the figures were: Pennsylvania, 58 delegates; New York, 70; Illinois, 41; the solid South, 276; total, 446, or 67 more than enough to nominate. This left a generous margin for losses. If the South could be kept solid Illinois could be spared and there would still be a majority of 25, but the South cannot be held; already the defections there are sufficient to wipe out the entire majority which the solid combination furnished. Sherman has at least 12 of the 20 votes of North Carolina, and probably 15; Blaine has at least 8 of the 16 from Texas, and is sure of 10 from West Virginia and the 16 from Maryland; Georgia's 22 are lost to Grant, whether they go to Blaine or Sherman. This makes a total lost to Grant of 68 votes, and leaves him 1 short of a majority with Pennsylvania and New York solid for him. But he will probably lose 10 votes in New York and 20 in this state, which will leave him from 20 to 30 short of a majority, even though he gets the entire Illinois delegation, which is not probable. Thus it will be seen that some of our friends who foolishly suppose they can carry a project against the will of the people, and our foes who hope to profit by our pursuing such a course, are both likely to be disappointed. The New York Tribune in speaking upon this subject says: While the Republican voters are quietly putting out of the way the one candidate whose nomination would have imperilled their cause, the Democratic conventions strengthen the probability that Mr. Tilden will be able to command the nomination of that party for himself or his next friend, as he may choose. It does not matter that several minor States have declared against him and his influences; he has shown such a power in New York that his friends can well afford to say: "Either Mr. Tilden, or his executor, or no Democrat, shall be President." That it is in the power of Mr. Tilden to defeat his party in this State, and that, too, merely by indifference to the struggle, no one can doubt.

There is no such feeling in New York, in behalf of any candidate or against any candidate, among the Republicans. Men have their preferences, and it is their right, but there is no class of Republicans who threaten that the State will not give a Republican majority unless their favorite should be nominated. Senator Conkling does not desire the nomination of Senator Blaine, for example, and yet he has openly declared that he and his friends would do what they could to secure the success of the party if Mr. Blaine should be nominated. It is well understood that Senator Conkling does not desire the nomination of Senator Edmunds, or Secretary Sherman, or ex-Minister Washburne, but no one supposes that he would try to defeat either of these candidates, if nominated by his party, or that the Republican voters in this State would suffer such an effort to succeed if it were made.

In short, General Grant is the only prominent Republican candidate for whom New York probably could not be carried against a united Democracy, and the opposition in his case is less to the person than to the principle involved in his nomination for a third-term. It is not unlikely that New York might vote against a third-term candidate, but it is hardly probable that any other Republican nominee would fail in this State.

NEW YORK LETTER.

VALUE OF A HUSBAND—THE VANDERBILTS—FOREST FIRES—HOLLIDAYSBURG SCHOOL.

From our own Correspondence.

NEW YORK, April 24th.

A curious law suit, in fact, the most novel that has come before our courts, is on trial before Judge Neilson and a jury in the court room, and before the same judge as Theodore Tilton's suit against Henry Ward Beecher. The suit in question is brought by one German woman, who claims $20,000 damages from another German woman, a rich Brooklyn widow, for the alienation of her husband's affections. Her story is that the perfidious widow first took away her better half for a short time only, when he returned and asked forgiveness, which was readily granted, and everything would have been lovely but for the sudden re-appearance of the widow, who drove around in her carriage one fine morning to say that she must have the man, as she couldn't live without him, and ended up by carrying him off in triumph. Then the wronged wife resorted to law to reclaim the erring husband, but was defeated, and now asks the court for damages. The decision is eagerly watched for, as there is a natural curiosity among both sexes to ascertain just how much a husband is worth. It is a piece of information that's handy to have in the house.

The public will be relieved to learn that Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt's family are at last beyond any immediate danger of becoming a burden to the parish. The industrial and frugal head of the house has succeeded in selling enough of his New York Central stock to enable him to purchase about $50,000,000 of four per cent. bonds, so that now, by industry and strict attention to business he can take between six and seven thousand dollars out of Uncle Sam's pocket every working day in the year as interest on this snug little sum, beside whatever his other $50,000,000 of miscellaneous property may net him. This is a very gratifying state of things. It is so pleasant to see honest toil thus rewarded.

Among a large number of new and elegant residences now in process of erection in Fifth avenue are five magnificent houses, palaces in fact, for various members of the Vanderbilt family. These five mansions are to cost, all told, $1,650,000, the most expensive being that of young Cornelius, who proposes to expend three-quarters of a million on a home.

A vessel now loading in this city for Rio Janerio has for the most important part of its cargo a lot of forty large railroad scales, built by the Howe Scale Company, especially for the Dom Pedro Railroad of Brazil. This line is a particular pet of the large-minded and progressive sovereign whose name it bears and who gives constant attention to its interests. The selection of the Howe scales for use on this road is the most pointed compliment possible and indicates the official preference for them in that country.

Immense forest fires are raging through the eastern section of New Jersey, consuming miles of timber and destroying houses and barns. The farmers are fighting the flames with their best efforts but with slender hopes of success. The southeastern cities are threatened with demolition, as the conflagration will probably sweep to the seacoast unless heavy rains occur very soon.

An eccentric citizen of the metropolis was missed recently and the house he had occupied alone for years was opened by the authorities and his dead body was found. The house was discovered to be one of the most remarkably furnished edifices in the city. Every room was hung with oil paintings of ancient and modern artists. Many pictures, known to have been in existence, but lost to public view for years were found among the collection. A will bequeathing the lot to the city and providing for the erection of a suitable building for a gallery was found and brought to probate. This gallery will be one of the future attractions of the city.

Hart, the tough little darkey who won the late walking match at Gilmore's Garden, making 565 miles, the best score on record, walked off with $16,000 for his six days' work. The next occupation of the Garden will be by the fourth annual Bench Show of dogs, which is expected to be the largest similar exhibition ever held. One Philadelphian will send twenty dogs valued at $60,000.

I wish again to speak of the Hollidaysburg seminary and cannot do better than to quote from their catalogue, and I may say that this is perfectly reliable information. This institution offers, with the comforts of a refined home, educational advantages not surpassed by any other school in the country. It aims to give young ladies a practical and liberal Christian education, and is eminently a home school. The attendance, usually representing twelve or fifteen States, is select, and limited to about ninety pupils; a number sufficient to justify the employment of the very best instructors in all the ornamental branches, which smaller schools cannot afford to do, and yet not so large as to prevent teachers from meeting pupils daily, and giving special personal attention to each—a thing wholly impracticable in large and miscellaneous schools. There are ten distinct departments of instruction, and teachers for each, who, with special qualifications devote themselves exclusively to their respective departments. This plan possesses important advantages, not only as being promotive of a higher grade of scholarship, and greater thoroughness, and securing a more connected and comprehensive grasp of the department, but, as the same teacher is in charge of all branches of the department and carries the pupil from beginning to end of course in the same, it enviates entirely all that particular embarrassment and loss of time to the pupil which is unavoidable in passing from the methods, etc., of one teacher to those of another in the same branch of study. It also relieves in great measure the necessity for periodic examinations, and enables pupils to pursue a regular or special course under equally favorable conditions.

Next week I will give some further information in relation to the school, and will speak of the regulations and requirement if, however, in the intervening time, any of your readers desire information from head quarters, they can obtain it by addressing W. P. Hussey, Hollidaysburg, Pa.

RADIX.

OUR EUROPEAN LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent.

BERLIN, Germany, Apr. 12, 1880.

During the forthcoming season, i. e., about the middle of July, Berlin is going to treat her visitors to one of those great national outdoor festivities which the unrestrained good humor and love of rattling fun of her inhabitants render exceptionally attractive, and which all the powers that be, from the Emperor and his Ministers downwards, patronize with unmistakable liberality and much frank, cordial and individual eagerness. The chief feature of the contemplated fete is the great international meeting of the sharp shooters, the crack shots of the universe having been invited, and a large number have signified their intention to be in attendance in their respeetive national costumes. Thus we shall see the Scotch highland marksman elbowing the Tyroless "Shutz" on the stand, and courting the Hungarian lassy at the "hopser" under the sycamore by moonlight. The lively Bersaglier will be seen trying his skill against the blue eyed Norwegian in the open field, while some enamored Frenchman will be singing his fascinating love stories to a romantic Fraulien, under the shade of the nearest Prater grove.

As might have been expected, the Hartmann business has brought about a better understanding between Germany and Russia than has prevailed for some time past. The German newspapers gave great prominence in their columns to the speech of the Emperor of Russia delivered at a banquet in the Winter Palace to congratulate the Emperor of Germany on the attainment of his eighty-fourth birth day. Besides the usual complimentary notices incident to the occasion the tone of the German inspired press has become sensibly softened towards Russia, and the Russian newspapers, in their turn, have ceased almost entirely to criticise German affairs. General Chanzy, the French ambassador, will, it is said, shortly leave St. Petersburg on urgent private affairs, and Prince Orloff, the Russian ambassador at Paris, has had an interview with Prince Bismarck on his way to St. Petersburg. Diplomatists regard this latter incident as the sign of a better understanding between Germany and Russia.

The new spelling fever is becoming epidemic in the Fatherland, and threatens to undo in the course of time all that the painstaking Iron Chancellor has accomplished for the unification of the elements that once composed the old confederation. The great orthographical campaign, individually undertaken by the ministers of public instruction of a half-dozen German States, promises to become the subject of a highly interesting national controversy, and will ultimately furnish some fine points for coming to loggerheads as of old. Of all the school boys under the sun the German schoolboy carries the day in the way of grammatical botherations. And now, bless his good soul, they are going to open prospects of orthography before the like of which will certainly outdo the study of the most mysterious antedeluvian etymologyns. He will not only have to learn how to spell the words of his own language at home, but, for the sake of international Dutch goodfellowship, he will have to be up to the mark about spelling, say in Hanover, Bavaria, Baden, Hesse-Darmstadt, Hohenzollern, Seigmaringen, Prussia, etc., etc., should he happen to be a native of Lipp-Lipp-Nickel-Pickle-Rumpernickle, or vice versa. The experiment will doubtless be an inexpensive one, but it will have the advantage of worrying to death a lot of poor folks, besides becoming a kind of unfathomable luxury with which to tease the foreigner. I have seen some of the latest academical ideas on the subject of type, and I feel sure that if Hans Breitmann could set his hands upon this piece of astounding letter press, he would instantly convoke his friends to another "Carty."

LOUIS.

State News in Brief.

Shad are being caught in profusion at Columbia.

Governor Hoyt is a sufferer from rheumatism.

The pine forests of Elk county swarm with rats.

Perry county is the best hoop pole region in the State.

The "Salvation Army" has got as far west as Conshocken.

Counterfeit half dollars are being "shoved" in various parts of the State.

A number of capitalists at Reading are forming a company to build a furnace.

Squirrels are unusually numerous along the spurs of the Allegheny mountains.

The number of rigs blown down by the wind in the Bradford oil region last Friday was sixty.

The electric light is to be tried in Titusville for lighting the business part of the town, in place of street lamps.

The hands in the car shops at Reading are working several hours over time every night to fill a large order.

Seven thousand tons magnetic ore will be sent from Bucks county to Freemensburg for the Lucy furnace by May 1st.

An old farmer named Ashbrook was shot and killed at Jacksonville on Sunday by some fisherman who were trespassing on his farm.

Since the death of little Charlie Townsend, at Knowlton, of hydrophobia, the people of that vicinity have killed off all the dogs in short order.

Twelve gentlemen of Dunbar township, Fayette county, have had a boat built, in which they are to travel to the Cincinnati convention this summer.

Louis Rockwell, living near Lackawaxen, is 102 years old. He has seven brothers and sisters living, whose ages, it is said, will aggregate 571 years.

Charles Townsend, five years of age, residing at Knowlton, Chester county, was bitten by a dog on the 27th of March and died on Monday last from a severe attack of hydrophobia.

More petitions are presented to the courts in eastern counties this spring for the opening of new roads than have been signed for years, an evidence of increase of population and business.

Judge Junkin, of Perry county, makes all persons taking out a license before him swear that they will not sell intoxicating liquor by the bottle to any one they do not know to be of integrity. This is done to avoid liquor being procured for those to whom the barkeepers refuse to sell.

One of the heaviest and most successful brokers at the Pittsburg oil exchange, is a Mr. Cooper, who is not 18 years old. He was formerly a messenger for the Western Union telegraph company.

The Democrats of Montgomery county instructed their delegates to the State convention in favor of General Hancock for the Presidency. Adams and Butler counties instructed in favor of Mr. Tilden.

At the smelting works of the Pennsylvania lead company, located at Mansfield, Allegheny county, 50,000 ounces of silver are turned out each week, worth $57,000. This is in addition to the lead and gold that is obtained.

John A. Roth, a laboring man, aged sixty-two years, residing in Warwick township, Lancaster county, dropped dead from heart disease on Monday, while spreading lime in a field. He leaves a wife and four children.

A Harrisburg exchange tells of an old fellow of nearly 70 who courted a young woman of that place for nearly four years and then married her. They lived together one day, when he got tired and left, and is still missing.

It is estimated there are now over two thousand rafts between Lackawanna and Easton, Pa. Each raft contains about sixty thousand feet of lumber, making a total of one hundred and twenty million feet on way to Philadelphia.

Many of the interior towns are looking after the junk shop keepers very closely, and arresting all such as encourage young boys to deal with them. In many localities these shops are regarded as schools for juvenile thieves.

In Philadelphia, Monday night, Constantine Romano, a runner for a sailors' boarding house, boarded the Italian bark Romano, and, in a row with the crew, was shot and stabbed to death. The mate, boatswain and six of the crew have been arrested.

Samuel Wagner, of Limestone valley, recently purchased a tract of land in Lycoming county. The sellers turned over to him a large number of old documents, deeds, &c., and among them one from John Penn, Jr., and John Penn, Esq., to William Ball for the tract described as "called Albion, in Oval, Limestone valley," and dated 1779. The deed is written on a parchment blank, excellently preserved, and over the signature is ribbonded a seal the size of a saucer and weighing half a pound.

The school superintendents' convention at Harrisburg, which was more largely attended than any previous one, adjourned finally yesterday, after a three days' session. In response to an invitation of a committee, yesterday, State Treasurer Noyes made an explanation to the convention of the failure of the commonwealth to pay to the various school districts their appropriations. There was a deficiency of about $1,700,000 in the State treasury, and in following a long established custom he had met other obligations before he did those of the schools.

Argument was heard by Judge Pearson at Harrisburg, the other day, in a case in which the Adams Express Company was the defendant. The Auditor General had settled the account against the company, charging them with tax on net and gross earnings. Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, for the defendant, contested that the act providing for tax on gross earnings repealed the previous one taking net earnings. The Deputy Attorney General claimed that the first law, not being inconsistent with the subsequent legislation, was still in force. The amount involved is about $4,000.

A good story is told of William Groesbeck. When a candidate for Congress a number of ward bummers were urging the millionaire to a more liberal tapping of a barrel. He shut them up with a bit of humor that made the air blue with profanity the moment his back was turned. "Gentlemen," he said, with intense solemnity, "you forget that I have a family to support." It is scarcely necessary to say that William Groesbeck, able statesman, was not elected.

A story is told of General Butler's sarcastic retort upon a Massachusetts judge, whom he was teasing for a ruling favorable to a cause he was defending in court. The judge got out of patience at last, and somewhat testily exclaimed: "Mr. Butler, what do you think I sit here for?" The General quietly shrugged his shoulders and said: "The court has got me now."

Poetry.

By-and-Bye.

"By-and-bye," the maiden said—"by-and-bye
He will claim me for his bride.
Hope is strong, and time is fleet;
Youth is fair, and love is sweet.
Clouds will pass that fleck my sky.
He will come back by-and-bye—by-and-bye."

"By-and-bye," the soldier said—"by-and-bye—
Often have I fought and bled—
I shall go home from the wars,
Crowned with glory, seamed with scars.
Joy will flash from some one's eye
When she greets me by-and-bye—by-and-bye."

"By-and-bye," the mother cried—"by-and bye—
Strong and sturdy at my side,
Like a staff supporting me,
Will my bonnie baby be.
Break my rest, then—wail and cry—
Thou'lt repay me by-and-bye—by-and-bye."

Fleeting years of time have sped—hurried by—
Still the maiden is unwed;
All unknown the soldier lies,
Buried under alien skies;
And the son, with blood-shot eye,
Saw his mother starve and die.
God in heaven! dost thou on high
Keep the promised by-and-bye—by-and-bye.

Ella Wheeler.

Our Story Teller.

IRISH MATCH-MAKING.

In the west of Ireland the feelings of the young women are seldom consulted in matters matrimonial. Her father being the best judge of what is for his daughter's advantage, opposition on her part is of very rare occurrence, except where she has taken the precaution of providing herself with a husband before. When a match is made and the bargain concluded, if the girl declines to accept the husband selected, she quickly loses caste, the young men considering that a disobedient daughter must of necessity make an uncomfortable wife.

Still more exceptional is an objection on the part of the young man to the wife selected for him by his father, as he feels quite satisfied that experience enables his parent to judge of the temper and qualifications of a woman much better than he possibly could. Moreover, the father has the advantage of being able to examine her merits with a perfectly impartial and critical eye. Interest and inclination alike lead him to make the best selection; he does it after a vast amount of cogitation; but when his choice is made it is unalterable; and he will obstinately contend for his son's interest without a single thought of the woman's inclinations, taking it for granted that they will be in accordance with her father's wishes. The mother has little to say in the matter on either side. She never goes matchmaking, and is not in any way consulted, being only acquainted with the intentions of her husband for their son, when he has made up his mind. Marriage is a matter of business, and is like any other bargain, made with the shrewd, calculating caution which characterizes the Connaught man. Marriage gifts, such as pigs, poultry, a cow, etc., are never forgotten, and the girl's father has been known to refuse to give her a single penny of fortune until the bridegroom's parent had conceded to her a famous hatching goose! The following is a specimen of the way in which matrimonial affairs are managed west of the Shannon:

"Get out my Sunday clothes, Judy," said old Corney O'Byrne, one evening when he returned home from work, "I'm going over to Peter Linksey's to-night."

"Musha, Corney, an' what are ye goin' for?" Judy asked, as she unlocked a large deal chest, painted red, which stood near the fireplace, and carefully took out a blue frieze tail coat with bright metal buttons, a pair of bright-colored knee breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, a pair of strong shoes, and a billycock hat, which with a red pocket handkerchief with a flowered border (which he carried in his hat), and a stout blackthorn shillalah, constituted Corney's Sunday suit.

"Sure, I'm goin' to make a match between our Dermott and Kate Linksey," he said at last, in reply to his wife's question. "She's a purty colleen, an' the boy is mighty pleased with her entirely."

"So she is, Corny, a lankie little girl, an' she'll have a snug fortune, maybe. Peter is a dacent, honest man."

"Faith, Judy, an' he is that same, or it isn't Corny O'Byrne that would 'cut, shuffle or dale' with him or his, an' Dermott tells me Katie likes him."

"An' why wouldn't she, Corny? There's not as purty a boy in the parish, nor a better," Judy said, friendly.

"True for ye, asthore; give us out the ould stocking, an' we'll make a match of it this Shrovetide, with the blessin' o' St. Patrick," Corney replied.

From the furthest corner of the chest Judy drew out carefully an old worsted stocking and handed it to her husband, who weighed it in his hand, and then, with a sly wink, buttoned it into one of his pockets. "This'll do this business, Judy," he said, as he left the house, with many Banaughth-Laths—God prosper, or be with you—from his wife.

Peter Linksey was a small farmer living about a quarter of a mile from Corny's cabin. He had several sons and one daughter, Katie, who was considered the "beauty" of the village of Ballymoyne. Her eldest [illegible] was [illegible] bring his wife home, and her father considered it would be very advisable to get Katie married and settled before the arrival of her sister-in-law and Dermott O'Byrne—a fine strapping young fellow, very "steady" and good natured—old Peter thought would make a very good husband for his girl (especially as he was an only child), if no better suitor offered.

When Corny O'Byrne reached Peter Linksey's cabin he put his head over the half-door, and said in Irish, "God save all here!" the customary form of greeting in that and many other parts of Ireland.

"God save ye kindly, Corny," said Peter from the chimney-corner; "come in and take a sate."

Corney entered with both his hands behind his back, and took a seat on a three legged seat that Linksey had pushed in front of the fire for him.

"Fine weather for the crops, Corny," Peter said, poking up the fire with his shoe. "An' Mary, throw on a couple o' dry turf, and sweep up the hearth, will ye?"

Mary did as her husband desired, and then going to a recess in the wall by the fire place, took out from thence a new clay pipe and piece of tobacco. "Will ye light the pipe, Corny?" said she, handing them to the old man, who took them with a nod, and filled slowly, kindling with a coal from the hearth, blew a few whiffs in grave, dignified silence, smoked it for a few moments and then gave it back to Corny and proceeded to light his own pipe.

They both smoked steadily for a time, and then Mrs. Linksey pulled a small table between them, procured from her chest a stone jar of potheen and a couple of cracked glasses, which she set on the table with a noggin of cold water, and taking up her pail, proceeded to the barn to milk the cows.

"That's a purty colleen of yours, father," Corny said, after a long silence.

"Thrue for ye, an' a good, sensible little girl into the bargain; it's happy's the man that'll get her," Peter replied, after due consideration.

"That's what I said myself, an' I come over to see if we can't make a match between my Dermott an' herself?" O'Byrne said, after another interval.

"He's a likely boy," pursued Peter, reflectively.

"Ye may well say that, Peter, an' he'll make a good husband, no doubt, for he's a good son. What do you say to it?" Corney asked, leaning forward on his stool.

"I'm pleased—"

"God save all here!" said a harsh, grating voice, and a head appeared in the doorway, "Good evening to ye, Peter."

"Good evening, kindly," Peter returned. "Come in and take a sate, Tom."

The newcomer entered and took a stool, and casting a questioning glance at Corny O'Byrne, proceeded to light his pipe and smoked for a few minutes. He was a stout, harsh featured man with a loud voice. He was not much of a favorite in the village, and especially disliked by Corny O'Byrne—who never lost an opportunity of annoying Tom Dillon. He was a comfortable farmer, and one of his sons had been "making up" to Katie Linksey sometime before. After a silence, during which time the three old men smoked energetically, Dillon cleared his throat two or three times and then said abruptly: "Peter, I want to make a match between your little girl and my Martin; have ye anything to say again it?"

"Sorra one word, Tom, only me neighbor Corny O'Byrne and myself were speaking of the same thing when ye came in," Peter replied, with a shrewd glance at them both.

"First come first served, Peter," Corny said, shaking the ashes from his pipe and knocking the bowl against his thumb-nail; "mind that!"

"To be sure, to be sure," Peter replied; and then there was another long pause.

"An' we may as well clunch the bargain at once," Corney continued. To be sure, to be sure," Peter again assented, smoking steadily.

"Ye have nothing' agin my Martin, have ye, Peter Linksey?" Tom Dillon said, laying down his pipe.

"Again him? No; he's a nice dacent boy, an' I have a great regard for him," Peter answered.

"An' he has great regard for your little girl, an' sorra a day's good will he do till he's married," ejaculated Tom, bringing his fist down on the table. "He's set his mind on it, an' I'll help him out!"

"Turf and tundther! Tom Dillon, didn't Peter Linskey tell you I came matchmaking for Dermott?"

"Tundther an' turf! Corny O'Bryne, don't I tell you I came to do the same thing for my Martin; an' I suppose a Dilion may ask a Linksey in marriage any day—an' he can afford it, to!" Tom added, slapping his pocket.

"An' let me tell ye, an O'Byrne can put down pound for pound with a Linksey any day; or, for that matter, with a Dillon," Corny said, with a scornful glance at Tom, who was in his working clothes—"Peter," he continued, "ye know what I came for; what fortunes are ye going to give Katie?"

Peter took out his pipe, emptied it, proceeded to refill it leisurely, poked the fire, re-lit the pipe, settled himself back in his corner, and said slowly: "Fortue, Corny! Katie is a fortune herself. I'm a poor man, an' the times is bad; an' beyond a new gown, a couple of fleeces of wool an' a bank or so of yarn, I can't give her any fortune."

Corny looked astonished and pushed back his stool, as much as to say that further negotiations were useless, when Tom Dillon said: "Never mind, Peter; there's them as'll be willin' to take her without any fortune, an' can afford it, too."

"Thrue for ye, Tom Dillon, and one o' them is Dermott O'Bryne. We're not depending on a few bare pounds—not but what it's well to have something to put by for the childer," he added, cautiously.

"To be sure, Corny; to be sure," Peter assented.

"Well, Peter, is it to be me or Corny?—is it a Dillon to be put behind the door for an O'Bryne? Isn't my Martin as likely a boy as there is in the barony? He'll take your colleen without a brass penny, an' do well for her. What do you say to that?" Tom demanded, slapping the table ferociously.

"Bedad then, Tom, I'm in a fix entirely. Here's Corny, a dacent old man, with a fine, steady gossoon of a son—he's first; an' here's yourself, an honest man an' a good neighbor—sorra betther—an' sure Martin is the pride of the parish on a Sunday! I'm bothered entirely, an' what can I say but settle it betune ye? Whichever of ye can do the best for her, take her, in the name of St. Patrick!" and Peter resumed his pipe and sunk back into his corner.

The two old men eyed one another silently for a few minutes, then Dillon pulled a little bag out of his pocket, opened it deliberately and took out another, from which he drew out a third, made of purple stuff, fastened with a piece of red braid. Very slowly, his eyes still fixed on Carny, he pulled out a sovereign, and laid it on the table. "Show Peter Linksey what ye mane to do, Corny O'Byrne," he said.

Corney smiled scornfully, produced his old stocking, and extracting a five pound note, put it beside him and noded his head defiantly. Tom drew forth one more sovereign, clinked it on the table, and nodded his head. Old Peter amused himself in one corner without muttering a word.

Corny waited for a moment, and then said, "Is that all you're goin' to do, Mr. Dillon?"

Tom threw down another sovereign—Corney followed his example, till they had each laid £20 upon the table.

"Is that all ye're goin' to do, Mr. Dillon?" Corny repeated.

"In ready money, it is Misther O'Bryne."

"Then I bate ye that!" Corny cried, throwing down another pound. "I bate him in cash, Pater; do ye mind that?"

Peter nodded and whiffed away.

"I'll take the girl in an' share the best we got with her, an' give Martin two acres of land and a couple of bonives" (little pigs) announced Tom Dillon.

"Dermott'll have my land when I'm gone, every rood," said Corny.

"I'll give a heifer in! Twenty pounds, share of a house, two acres of land, an' a pig. What do ye say, Peter?" Tom cried. "Not bad for a colleen without a penny."

"Throe for ye, Tom," Peter assented. "What'll you do, Corny?"

"Twenty-one pounds— down the day they're married, a house, and a home, a feather bed, and the finest mule in the parish—that's what I'll do."

"But the land—Tom is giving two acres," Peter observed: "Think of that, Corny."

"Dermott'll have the land afther me, and enough to eat off it till I'm gone. I have no one but him. Tom Dillon has three more to provide for."

"And plenty to do it with; and I'll put it three acres, Peter, of the best upland in Ballymoyne," Tom replied.

"It's veey fair, and I'm obliged to ye, Tom," Peter said, slowly.

"I'll make it twenty-five down, an' throw in a heifer," Corny cried.

"It's very dacent, Corny, and I'm obliged to ye," Peter observed, in the same tone.

"I'll throw in a calf!" exclaimed Dillon. "Twenty pounds, three acres of land, a bonive, a heifer and a calf. Now, Peter, done or not?"

"I think ye spoke of two bonives, Tom?" Peter said quietly.

"No, no; only one. It's all I can spare; and I think it's not bad, Peter."

"Bedad, Tom, I think ye said a couple of bonives," Peter said once more.

"Nabocklish (never mind) Peter. I'll throw in a clutch (a whole brood) of ducks—take it or lose it. Twenty five pounds down the day they're married, a house and home, a feather bed, a fine mule, a heifer, and a clutch of ducks," said Corny, putting the money back into his stocking.

"Faix, and a clutch of ducks is not bad," observed Peter. "They're better than a calf to them that has not a cow to feed it; an' Corny's is the best house, and Katie'll have it all to herself. When your Matt and James marry, it'll be mighty narrow for ye all."

"James is going to America, Peter," said Tom.

"Well, that makes a difference. But isn't there anything else yer inclined to offer? Dermots is the best match at this minute," observed Peter.

"I am done!" said Tom. Then suddenly staring up he cried, "Wait a minute!" and ran out of the house, returning in a quarter of an hour, staggering under a great sack of seed potatoes.

"There, Corny O'Bryne, put that in your pipe and smoke it!" he cried, excitedly.

Corny, at first sight of the sack, started to his feet and put on his hat. "Wait a minute, Peter," he cried, "I'll not be long," and running all the way home was soon there.

"Get me a sack, Judy—the meal sack—and be quick, asthore!" cried he, excitedly.

"Arra, be aisy, Corny, shure and the male is in it."

"Betther and betther," cried Corney, going into the room which served as a dairy; and without vouchsafing another word to the astonished Judy, he shouldered the bag and trotted off with it as fast as he could.

Completely out of breath, he reached Peter's bathed in perspiration; but on entering he unluckily tripped over the doorstep, and fell with the sack full length into the kitchen. The string round the neck of the bag gave way, and covered with the meal, he groaned and stammered breathlessly: "Th-there, Pepether Linksey! Wh-while the prates was gr-growin' the meal would keep them alive! Wh-what do ye say, Peter?"

"Begorra, Corny, I say what I often said before that yer a dacent man—and yer boy is welcome to Kate Linksey."

"What do ye mean, Peter?" cried Tom Dillon.

"What I say, Tom; nor a more nor less. The child might die of the foregarthu (a fainting brought on by hunger) while the praties was growin'. Dermott O'Bryne can best provide my little girl with comforts, and he is welcome to her."

At that moment a merry laugh caused the three old men to look round, and Corny tried to scramble to his feet. In the doorway stood Kate Linksey, her hands pressed to her sides and tears of mirth coursing down her face. "I am sorry for you, Corny, but I could not help laughing—you looked so quare."

"Be quiet, Kate, and come here," said Peter. "I was match-making for ye, and the bargain is closed between me and Corny."

"Ye don't name it, father!" said Kate, with a comical glance at Corny and Tom.

"Shure enough, I do, me colleen; have ye anything to say agin it?" replied Peter, knocking the ashes from his pipe.

"Mash, not a word, father dear; only—only—"

"Only what, Katie?"

"Only that last Tuesday I was married to Jack Mangan, the painter," she replied with a loud musical laugh which brought her husband to the door.

"What!" shrieked Tom Dillon.

"What!" echoed Peter.

"Oh, Peter Linksey, Peter Linksey, yer afther humbugging us," cried Tom, reproachfully.

"Ay humbogging us!" echoed Peter, mournfully; and Peter, who was a sly old humorist, put his head against the wall and laughed heartily at their astonishment.

The two ambassadors silently took their respective sacks, and slowly departed, each thinking himself injured and in their mutual discomfiture forgetting their animosity. As for old Peter he was too well pleased to have his daughter well married and off his hands without even the "new gown" or the priest's dues—though he could afford to give her a good fortune—as good fortunes go in that part of the country.

When next Corney went "match-making" he found out beforehand if the young woman was willing, and as for Tom Dillon he vowed it served him right for being "humbugged," as he only wonted to bother his neighbor, Corny O'Byrne (with whom he was ever after good friends), and he declared in future his boys might match-make for themselves.

A Cluster of Thoughts.

Good husbandry is not bad divinity.

God calls and the doctor takes the fee.

Three may keep counsel if two be absent.

Double dealing is the index of a base spirit.

Many are willing to wound who are yet afraid to strike.

Those who have most need to credit seldom get much.

Entertain honor with humility, and poverty with patience.

Difficulties, to be surmounted, must be met with energy.

Education polishes good dispositions, and corrects bad ones.

He who sells an acre of land, parts with an ounce of credit.

Dignity does not consist in possessing honors, but in deserving them.

An eloping chap gave himself away badly on board the steamer bound for Bermuda. His name was Dr. George M. Hunter, and he and Miss Androvette, with whom he had eloped, had registered as Mr. and Mrs. Huntingdon. Just before the steamer arrived at Bermuda the passengers passed a vote of thanks to the officers and crew for their efficient seamanship. Mr. Huntingdon, in signing the paper, forgot himself and wrote, "Geo. M. Hunter, M. D." Some of the passengers then showed him a newspaper containing on account of his elopement.

Nineteen Socialists, most of them Germans, have, at the instance of Prince Bismarck, been expelled from the soil of France. This looks like cowardice. There was a time when such a demand would have been resented as an impertinent interference, and properly so, and it is surprising that the fiery Radicals should have submitted so tamely to the humiliation put upon the country. They could not always restrain their tempers so diplomatically.

—Tramps won't fool around York county much hereafter. For committing a burglary in a small town in that county four of them have been sent to the penitentiary for thirteen years each. Now, how much better it would have been if—but what's the use of moralizing.

Local Small Talk.

—Altoona is billed for a circus, and is happy.

—The public schools of this place closed last Thursday.

—Pasture lands are looking finely throughout the county.

—Some unfeeling chap says the biggest thing on ice this year will be the price.

—Hon. L. A. Mackey, of Lock Haven, who has been touring in Colorado, has returned.

—Lock Haven is making preparations to manufacture 40,000,000 feet of lumber this season.

—Lovers of oysters should make good use of their time between now and the first of May.

—Jersey Shore is to be brought into communication with Williamsport by a line of telephone.

—Lamb & Caldaway, painters, have put up a neat and attractive sign before their place in the McClain block.

—The clouds are scudding
The trees are budding.

The best thing about the above is its briefness.

—The residence of Mrs. Montgomery, on Allegheny street, has been very much improved by a coat of fresh paint.

—The average life of a railroad tie is said to be fifteen years. A great many matrimonial ties don't live half that time.

—Henry W. Foutz, proprietor of the Bellefonte Planing Mills, will withdraw from that establishment about May 1st.

—A Prohibition State Convention is called to meet in Altoona, May 20. It won't be the biggest convention that ever was.

—The iron fence and portico on the premises of Judge Irvin, Jr., have been brightened up with a fresh coat of green paint.

—Mr. Robert Doak has been doing a very tasteful job of painting on the portico of Mr. F. W. Crider's residence on Linn street.

—Juvenile scrimmage behind the depot the other day. Boy with cream-colored hair had a handful of said hair jerked out.

—Dandelions must be plenty about here this spring. We saw one boy with half a wheelbarrow load coming down Halfmoon hill.

—Williamsport wants the National Guard reunion next August. Bellefonte has a hankering for it, too, so what'll we do about it.

—Carpenters have been at work on the large porch of William Reynolds' residence, on Linn street, reshingling and making other repairs.

—The Bellefonte jubilee singers will give the people at the State College a taste of their excellent music on the evening of the 29th inst.

—A sewing machine, run by the Nicholson water motor, may be seen in operation at the Singer sewing machine agency, on Allegheny street.

—The Sunday-school convention of the East Pennsylvania Eldership, church of God, will convene at Newburg, Cumberland county, on the 11th of May.

—Carpenters are making some extensive alterations and repairs on the frame house owned by Mr. Henry Twitmire, on the turnpike, near the Academy.

—Fishermen are not very ambitious about here. We haven't heard a decent fish story this season. Some one come out with a "whopper" and start the thing a going.

—"One who does business on credit and never advertises," is the Huntingdon Globe's answer to the conundrum, "What is a green grocer?" The Globe's answer is correct.

—Some one says the Bellefonte police ought to be uniformed. Well, it wouldn't take a fabulous sum to do it, considering the force numbers something less than 300 at present.

—Ice cream signs are hung out all over town. This being leap year it is the ladies who are attacked with a peculiar stroke of blindness while escorting their "calico" by a sign.

—The well being sunk at Osceola to supply the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad engines with water, is a success, an abundant supply having been reached at a depth of three hundred feet.

—Mr. Henry Fidler, of near Woodward, is the owner of a pretty substantial piece of dog property. It is a Newfoundland "purp" that tips the beam at one hundred and thirty-five pounds.

—The sidewalk before the residence of Mr. Jacob Valentine, on High street, has been repaired. It needed it. There are several other sections of walk about town that might be improved.

—Charlie Rine is now domiciled in his new pavillion, and would be pleased to have his friends and customers call. Charlie keeps a good stock of cigars and tobacco, and should receive a share of the public patronage.

—If you intend to whitewash your backyard fence, now is the time to do it.

—We think it safe to say that ulsters will not be brought out again this season.

—The Anglo-American Marionette Company will exhibit at the Opera House on the 28th and 29th insts.

—The friends of Mr. Levi Straub will be pleased to learn that he has abandoned for the present his intention of removing to Altoona.

—We noticed the good looking figure of G. Dorsey Green, of Buffalo Run, on our streets yesterday. He reports the railroad up his way as a fixed fact.

—Samuel Pennington, the man who was shot by John Nevling at Houtzdale, on the 17th of February last, died on Monday, the 19th inst., from his injuries.

—We saw four cows nibbling the green grass about the foot of one shade tree up town yesterday, and others were in the background waiting for a chance.

—The water in the Hollidaysburg reservoir was let out a day or two ago and five wagon loads of fish were captured. This ought to reduce the price of fish a little.

—Capt. Isaac Lytle, formerly a resident of Bellefonte, and well known throughout this section, died in Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday, the 20th inst., leaving his family in destitute circumstances.

—An alarmed exchange says things are changing fast indeed. What with oleomargarine for butter, glucose for sugar, and suckers for sardines, it is evident that the nation is drifting fast toward a counterfeit diet.

—That hole in the pavement, near Deschner's gun shop, ought to be repaired, and immediately. A lady stepped into it Tuesday night and came very near being thrown down the stairs leading to Mills' barber shop.

—Mr. John M. Duncan will open his private school on Monday, May 30th. He will receive pupils from 8 years upward. Especial care will be given to young ladies and gentlemen who may desire preparation for teaching. Early application is desirable.

—Mr. Joseph Stilles, of Sunbury, is the new "porter-in-chief" at the Bush House, and he's a good one. He was formerly employed at the Clement House, Sunbury, and the proprietors give him a very flattering recommendation.

—Did you ever notice the poor chap who stands in the first picture of the almanac, with the fish, and sheep, and scorpions, and bulls, and twins, etc., around? Did you ever notice that he was naked and had nothing in his stomach? Well, that fellow used to edit a paper.

—Harry English, the noted forger and murderer, of whom mention is made in our telegraphic dispatches, is the same individual who forged a check on Isaac Guggenheimer for $28.50 on the 3d instant. Mr. G. was shown a photograph of English by Officer Montgomery, and instantly recognized him.

—After observing the dear girls gaily flitting and skipping about, their smiling faces flooded with April's mellow sunbeams, the local of the Democrat became deeply affected, and hurried to his desk and wrote: "The soft, warm zephyrs which have been fanning nature for a week past, are fast bringing forth beauty."

—The Altoona Tribune, in speaking of the emigrants who pass through that place, says: "On Saturday a number of passengers on the Dutch train wore queer wooden shoes, which made considerable noise clicking on the stone flags." Shouldn't wonder a bit if those "Dutchmen" were Chinamen; but, then, the Tribune man has probably never been to China.

—Messrs. Henry F. and David Bartley met with a slight accident yesterday morning while at work on the latter's house in Spring township. The scaffolding upon which they were at work gave way, precipitating them both to the ground, a distance of 8 or 10 feet. The former had an ankle badly sprained, but otherwise no serious consequences resulted from the tumble.

—Billy Thomas, the accommodating ticket agent at the depot, has migrated to the state of matrimony in company with Miss Sarah Zimmerman, of Milesburg. We never thought this of Billy, 'deed we didn't; but braver hearts than his have been pierced by the fatal shaft and recovered. Mr. T. and his bride will journey to the far west, to be absent several weeks, and just here we will embrace the opportunity of wishing them luck, happiness and prosperity, unto the end. During Mr. Thomas' absence Mr. Martin Haines, of Milesburg, will fill his position.

State News in Brief.

Three Perry county barns were burned by lightning on last Friday night.

Benjamin Miller, of Erie, while delirious, jumped out of bed, ran into the street and dropped dead.

Four West Chester carrier pigeons that were released in Coatesville at 10:23 a. m. reached home at 10:55 a. m.

Robert Trego, of Salisbury twp., Lancaster county, committed suicide by hanging on Thursday. He was 60 years old.

William Y. Mason, farmer and merchant, in whose family suicide is a weakness, has hanged himself at Meadville.

A windstorm passed over the northern oil field on Friday afternoon, blowing down altogether from fifty to one hundred derricks.

The Harrisburg cotton mill will shut down on Saturday evening for the purpose of making necessary repairs to the engine and boilers.

The forest fires in Pike and Monroe counties, after burning over about 20,000 acres of ground, were extinguished by rain Friday night.

The new iron steamer Columbia, built for the Oregon steamship company, of Portland, left Roach's yard, at Chester, on Saturday evening for New York.

The strike of the employes at the extensive iron works of E. & G. Brooke, at Birdsboro, has terminated, the men resuming work at the employers' terms.

The mountain pink has been above the grass on the Schuylkill hillsides for several weeks. Its growth is plentiful in Chester and Montgomery counties.

Joseph Gladding, of Columbia Cross Roads, Bradford county, died recently in his 90th year. He tramped to the place where he died in 1813, from Massachusetts.

Captain George C. McLean, cashier of the Masonic national bank, at Pittsburgh, died on Saturday morning. He was surveyor of customs at Pittsburgh, under President Johnson.

Matthew Smith, keeper of a well known saloon known as the Saginaw House, located in the eastern part of Pittsburgh, took a position before his looking glass and shot himself fatally.

Mrs. Ann Wenned, of Allentown, intent upon suicide, took rat poison, and this failing jumped into a cistern. Failing again she took more rat poison, but the physicians will save her.

A Polish Jew peddler by the name of Frank, of Pittsburgh, has been arrested at Uniontown, Fayette Co., charged with the murder of Rachel Smith, at Greensburg Westmoreland county.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of four young men living in Locust Gap, Schuylkill county, charged with a brutal assault upon a young woman named Eberly, living near that place.

The Pennsylvania, Poughkeepsie and New England railroad company commenced putting down rails at the Wind Gap this week. The first spike was driven by Judge Rank, and was made of silver.

Smith N. Harkness, of Springfield, Bradford county, lost his wife on the 5th instant, and this loss so preyed upon his mind that he went into his barn, and, setting fire to it, perished in the flames.

A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Record from Pittsburgh states that Daniel Conroy, the Erie man who went crazy over the fifteen puzzle, is pronounced recovered, and will in a few days be discharged from Dixmont hospital.

A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Record states that James Francis, a blacksmith, residing at Kimbleton, on the Pickering Valley railroad, committed suicide on Saturday by cutting his throat in the presence of his wife and children.

In Towanda, last Monday, during a trial, Gen. H. D. Madill and James Wood, attorneys came to words, and in an encounter, Mr. Wood was seized by the whiskers and his face spat in. The bar association of the county has taken the case in hand.

Sunday afternoon Lottie Rannells, a 17-months old child of Samuel Rannells, of Lancaster, was badly scalded. The table of the family had been set for supper when the child walked to it, and, pulling at the cloth, upset a cup of hot coffee over its face and shoulders, scalding it in a terrible manner.

Howard A. Russell, the son of a respected citizen of Russellville, Chester county, recently opened a store in that town, laying in a stock of goods worth $1,500. After running the store for three weeks he suddenly disappeared, and now writes from Baltimore that he shall never return. A large number of creditors are left in the lurch.

MAYFIELD, Ky., April 22.—W. W. Ezell of this place snot and killed Dr. Dalton of Calloway county yesterday afternoon. Nine balls from Ezell's shotgun took effect in Dalton's breast and neck. Three pistols and two open knives were found on the dead man. The trouble between the two men grew out of an attempted elopement of Ezell's sister-in-law with Dalton a year ago, which Ezell prevented. Ezell says that Dalton had repeatedly threatened to kill him, and that he acted in self-defense.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Reports from the Pacific railway report heavy snow on the Central Pacific railway and trains are blocked. A great flood is imminent.

TREASURER'S SALE

OF UNSEATED LANDS FOR TAXES FOR 1879, AND PREVIOUS YEARS. — Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of An Act of Assembly, passed the 12th day June, A. D. 1815, entitled An Act to amend an Act directed the mode of selling unseated lands in Centre county," and the several supplements thereto, there will be exposed to public sale or outcry, the following tracts of unseated lands in said county for the taxes due and unpaid thereon, at the Court House in the Borough of Bellefonte, on the SECOND MONDAY OF JUNE, A. D., 1880.

Acres & Per.		Warrantee.	Taxes.
		EENNER.
250		Thomas Johnston,	$24 00
50		And Coon,	1 80
58		Robert Holmes,	2 04
50		John Moore,	1 80
50		J. D. Harris,	1 80
2		John Davis,	1 44
100		Foster Tate (owner),	2 60
		BOGGS.
196		⅓ of Packer & Lucas,	11 40
305	112	John Cochran,	23 52
379	145	D Karskadden,	30 62
433	163	Jonathan Harvey,	33 40
431	40	Moses Hood,	33 18
418	40	William Hood,	32 18
433	163	Josiah Haines,	33 40
424	78	Garret Cottinger,	32 64
300		Frank McCoy.	23 12
		BURNSIDE.
200		William Miller,	9 80
433	162	Bird Wilson.	21 27
140		Henry Harris,	8 68
100		Michael O'Bryan,	1 50
439	183	John Rugg,	6 75
415		John Shym,	6 44
415		Eli Canby,	6 44
433	163	Samuel Pancoast,	6 75
379½		David Lewis	5 58
415		John Barron,	6 44
411		Thomas P. Wharton,	12 75
34		Walter Stewart,	1 06
314	22	Paul Cox,	4 28
140	22	John Vaughn,	31 00
433	163	John Donelly,	13 44
433	163	John Kidd,	26 84
433	163	Henry Donelly,	26 84
433	163	Robert Brady,	40 20
433	163	Robert Gray,	26 80
433	163	William Dewart,	13 44
433	163	John Dewart,	13 14
433	163	James Towers,	13 14
433	163	William Gray,	13 14
415		John Weitzel,	12 89
415		James Black,	12 89
415		Joseph J. Wallace,	12 89
433	163	William Cook,	13 44
433	163	John Cowden,	13 44
433	163	William P. Brady,	26 80
433	163	Henry Shaffer,	26 80
435	161	John Housel,	20 15
433	163	John Lyon,	20 15
433	163	Charles Goben,	26 80
433	163	Thomas Grant,	13 44
433	163	John Brady,	13 44
415		John Boyd,	25 73
433	163	Alex. Greaves,	13 44
433	164	Joseph Morris,	13 44
433	163	Thomas Hamilton,	13 46
33	163	John Byers,	13 46
15		Jacob Weidner.	12 89
33	163	Benjamin Young,	13 46
433	163	Alex. Hunter,	13 46
433	163	Samuel Hunter,	13 46
433	163	Thomas Greaves,	13 46
433	153	Francis Tench,	13 46
433	153	George Harrison,	13 46
433	153	John Nicholson,	13 46
433	153	Blair McClanahan,	53 81
433	153	Pearson Hunt,	53 81
433	153	George McClanahan,	53 81
433	153	Polly McClanahan,	53 81
433	153	Ann McClenahan,	53 81
433	153	George Meade,	53 81
433	153	Andrew Pettit,	53 81
433	153	William Bingham,	53 81
415		Nathan Levy,	12 89
415		Joseph Thomas,	12 89
433	163	Joseph Wallace,	13 46
433	163	Joseph Wallace,	13 46
433	163	William Bell,	13 46
433	163	Samuel M. Fox,	21 27
415		Sarah M. Talman.	21 85
216	83	of Jeremiah Parker,	3 34
433	163	Alexander Bell,	24 94
433	163	Alex. J. Dallas,	13 46
		CURTIN
403		Rebecca Kelso,	54 00
196		James Miller,	18 60
293		James Irvin,	24 80
60		Ed. Hallowell,	5 58
415		Esther Eddy,	53 60
415		Casper Wistar,	53 00
380½		Joseph Kelso	8 36
207½		Caleb Lawns,	8 36
207½		Isaac Longstreth,	8 36
433	163	James White,	9 55
337		Lindley Coats,	3 60
415		William Gilbert,	79 20
433	153	Samuel Scott,	38 10
415		Jesse Waln,	20 40
415		Molly Wharton,	27 86
415		Joseph Waln,	27 86
383		Richard Waln,	24 89
390	49	John S. Furst,	28 60
433	162	Thomas Hale,	33 26
415		Jacob Waln,	22 79
320		Jonathan Willis,	24 86
207½		Robert Ainsly,	13 60
415		John McCauley,	18 27
415		Charles Allen,	27 28
217		Fishburn Wharton,	14 59
200		Richard Tunis,	17 60
207½		Caleb Lawns,	3 58
207½		Isaac Longstreth,	3 58
138	93	Job W. Packer,	27 10
135		Henry Donald,	8 16
207½		Robert Ainsly,	35 20
160		Richard Tunis,	14 08
433	163	Thomas McEwen,	28 62
217		Fishburn Wharton,	28 65
50		J. W. & S. C. Packer,	2 20
200		Philip Meyers,	35 20
100		Simon Meyers,	13 20
428	48	Michael Meyers,	36 96
434		Joseph Dewling,	19 10
326		Job W. Packer,	6 60
110		W. M. Packer,	7 27
200		John P. Mitchell,	6 60
326		Job W. Packer,	2 38
15		of J. W. Packer,	15
400		J. Z. Long,	15 00
433	163	Benj. R. Morgan,	9 50
		FERGUSON.
50		Isaac Buckley.	3 60
50		Josiah Lushby,	3 60
50		Richard Mosely,	3 60
10		Abraham Hicks,	47
		GREGG.
20	35	John F. Price,	42
50		John Rote (owner),	2 51
380		Bernard Hubly,	6 48
400		William Taggart,	2 10
400		David Taggart,	2 10
400		William Logan,	2 10
400		John Painter,	2 10
		HAINES.
435		John Simpson,	4 63
185		John Kidd,	2 07
228	150	William Mosby,	2 44
313	60	Adam Bolinder,	3 33
300	60	Albright Swineford,	3 19
435		Charles Hall,	27 73
		HALF MOON.
3	50	Abraham Elder,	28
44	11	Thos. Heyskill (owner),	8 10
24		Jac. Vanpool (owner),	4 42
63	89	C. Vanpool estate (owner),	1 44
69	76	C. Vanpool estate (owner),	4 60
40	10	Peggy Shearer,	3 68
		HARRIS.
407	92	Kearney Wharton,	6 73
109		John Irwin,	2 91
106		J. C. Fisher,	1 96
150		John Irwin,	2 87
400		William Brown,	7 60
2		Michael Brannen (owner),	19
133		George Fox,	3 80
89		John Irwin,	1 70
50		John Irwin,	95
		HOWARD.
20		William Crossman,	1 17
104	63	John Brady,	16 06
49	142	Samuel Leather,	5 71
25		Joseph Grayston	8 51
		HUSTON.
120		Adam Kuhn	14 10
		LIBERTY.
100		J. & D. Gunsaulus,	2 35
188		Part John Potter,	18 80
175		James A. Quigley,	8 23
30		Ross Baker,	4 23
175		George D. Hess,	8 23
200		Robert & James Hayes	32 90
188		Daniel Kronse,	155 10
10		Samuel P. Shenk, (owner),	4 70
8		Daniel David,	1 03
		MARION.
55	18	J. D. Shugert,	2 26
50		W. A. Thomas,	24 60
220		Alexander Scott,	53 28
123	120	Abraham Snyder,	29 52
50		William Allison,	3 60
53		McCalmont,	5 28
42	66	John Corman,	6 04
50		Jacob Deitz, (owner.)	2 40
		MILES.
425		Henry Toland,	7 54
425		David Williams,	7 54
425		Samuel Norton	7 54
334		Richard Parker,	5 76
324		Jeremiah Parker,	5 76
75		Thomas Tones,	1 33
422	116	John Mackey,	7 51
156	80	Benj. Young,	2 75
75		William Barton,	1 33
200		Robert Gray,	1 77
476		Thomas Grant,	8 45
460		Alexander Hunter,	8 16
430		Jeremiah Jackson,	7 65
125		William Steadman,	2 18
130		Robert Taggart,	2 31
200		Thomas Smith,	3 35
300		Aaron Levy,	5 32
430		Robert Brady,	7 65
410		Hannah Brady,	7 62
429		Robert Gray,	7 28
100		Abraham Scott,	1 77
50		Samuel Scott,	89
150		Abraham Scott,	2 67
90		Samuel Scott,	1 60
255		Jane Brady,	4 52
200		John Brady,	3 55
424		George Calhoun,	7 53
419		John Sigfried,	7 45
300		William Parker,	5 32
125		John Dorsey,	2 22
125		Moore Wharton,	2 22
402	134	William Miles,	7 12
26		William Packer,	48
320		Joseph Fearon,	5 86
320	128	George Kitts,	5 46
156	60	S. Derr & Jac. Stahl,	4 61
		POTTER.
400		William Hoffman,	11 80
400		Daniel Levy,	11 80
136	54	John Stoner,	2 70
45		Jacob Costaborder,	92
90		John Bitner, Sr. (owner),	1 82
580		Parker,	19 37
170		Parker,	5 38
132		Carothers,	2 64
400		Shires Fulmer,	12 60
327		S. & A. Scott,	10 34
138	134	George Foust,	1 38
		RUSH.
433	153	B. R. Morgan,	67 55
433	153	Thomas Greaves,	17 36
433	153	David Lewis,	17 36
433	153	Philip Eberman,	17 36
433	153	Jacob Wetzler,	17 36
50		John Wells,	2 01
200		Joseph Strong,	8 00
250		Paul Wells,	10 01
400		James Bush,	15 28
300		Thomas Erskin,	12 00
433	163	Bennet Lucas,	17 36
200		John Burg,	8 00
433	163	Henry Pinkerton,	17 36
430	9	James Raney,	17 21
300		Matthias Graff,	12 00
433	153	Robert Irvin,	67 55
433	153	John Funk,	15 02
323		Hugh Patton,	33 58
450	147	Jacob Rush,	63 19
422	44	John Weidman,	65 82
402	116	Jacob Weidman,	62 52
75		Joseph Harrison,	3 91
433	153	Jacob Rudesill,	17 38
433	163	Paul Bush,	67 55
433	163	Paul Black,	67 55
433	163	Paul Such,	67 55
433	163	John Borland,	67 55
433	163	John Kelly,	67 55
433	163	John Bush,	67 55
433	163	John Such,	67 55
400		John Black,	62 40
312		Joseph Wells,	48 66
433	153	Richard Malone,	67 55
433	153	James Toner,	45 02
433	153	John Hambright,	67 55
433	153	Andrew Graff,	67 55
407	137	Christian Musser,	63 05
40		Samuel Chestnut,	6 24
15		Casper Lawrence,	2 45
433	163	John Hopkins,	89 72
433	153	John Wilson,	12 29
433	153	Daniel Buckley,	67 55
433	153	Richard Peters,	22 58
200		John Copenhaver,	10 40
100		John Copenhaver,	5 20
250		of Andrew Allison,	52 00
300		of A. Allison & John Lilly,	62 40
433	153	William Gray,	103 93
6		James Wilson estate (owner),	5 20
		SNOW SHOE.
40		William P. Mitchell,	2 66
260		John Pim,	46 80
433	155	Kearney Wharton,	56 35
413		Robert Watters,	56 35
100		David Carscadon,	13 00
433	163	Andrew Summers.	14 04
433	153	Moore Wharton,	56 43
433	153	William Parker,	56 49
433	153	Rebecca Waln,	56 49
433	153	Benjamin H. Tallman,	56 49
433	153	Eli Wharton,	56 49
433	153	A. S. Valentine,	56 49
433	153	M. T. Millikon,	56 49
		N. J. Mitchell,	26 20
200		George Eddy,	56 37
433		James T. Hale,	49 79
383		James McManus,	56 29
433		Samuel Linn,	56 29
433		Benjamin R. Morgan,	56 29
433	153	Thomas Greaves,	56 35
433		Andrew Bayard,	56 29
434		of Samuel Dobson,	28 20
216		of Jeremiah Parker,	7 01
300		Job Reilly,	73 20
400		D. Karskaden,	26 00
100		Sarah Bittlebell,	6 50
409	73	N. J. Mitchell,	26 49
412	44	David Carscadon,	53 83
412	44	David Carscadon,	53 83
287	80	David Carscadon,	37 38
433	120	Luke Miner,	28 21
433	153	Francis West,	14 10
433	153	William H. West,	14 10
433	153	John West,	14 10
433	153	D. H. Cunningham,	14 10
368	71	John M. Nesbit,	14 10
360	144	Hugh Finn,	46 87
360	144	John Reiley,	46 87
433		Bird Wilson,	56 32
433	163	Kearney Wharton,	56 37
		SPRING.
15		John L. Kurtz,	1 47
3		Thomas Harrison, (owner.)	48
92	102	Thomas Thornburg,	5 79
		TAYLOR.
176		Moses Coste,	47 13
400		James Bush,	31 20
433	163	Thomas McCommon,	33 77
433	163	Ely Hootman,	33 77
100		James Moore,	3 90
50		Vincent Stephens,	3 90
433	163	Lesly Malone,	33 77
433	163	John McCommon,	33 77
176		Moses Coats,	28 56
60		Joseph Yoder,	30 60
434		Hugh Hamilton.	22 14
434		W. W. Montgomery,	44 26
434		John Montgomery,	44 26
150		John Carr,	17 85
280		James Carr,	30 60
100		Michael Weidner,	12 75
100		Michael Weidner,	49 80
80		Jacob Beck,	7 36
180		George Mong,	5 10
433	153	Mary Smith,	33 15
100		William Wilson,	15 30
100		David Ralston,	15 30
50		A. M. Elder,	12 75
250		Clement Beckwith,	63 75
123		Tract No. 1	43 89
180		Tract No. 2	45 90
189		Tract No. 18	48 20
141		Tract No. 8	35 96
210		Tract No. 12	82 68
71		of Thomas McClure,	7 25
90		C. Vanpool,	9 18
397		William Bell,	102 00
		UNION.
96		R. Molholland,	20 18
100	80	William Brower,	24 75
250		Ann Deal,	41 25
200		P. & R. Kuhns,	20 80
100		Jane Blake,	21 30
100		Samuel Phipps,	21 30
117		Boyce Davis,	6 10
433	153	Robert Stewart,	22 58
398½		Ebenezer Eranham,	5 20
139		Samuel Phipps,	14 46
140		John Cooper,	14 56
50		of Boyce Davis,	5 20
82	26	Rudolph Mulholland,	15 95
		WALKER.
74	96	Christ. Rohrer,	28 60
212		Samuel Barkman,	8 08
100		David Reed,	5 70
560		Mary McEwen,	10 64
201	133	James Sutler,	7 70
40		John Baker,	1 52
46		John McConing.	86
79		Henry Duck, Sr., (owner.)	3 02
		WORTH.
174		Hoover & Reese,	26 78
100		William Shipen, Jr.,	12 60
433	163	Samuel Scott,	13 46

The sum of fifty cents, cost of advertising, will be added to the taxes and costs in each case.

A. YEARICK, Treasurer.

Treasurer's Office, Bellefonte, Pa., April 10, 1880

WANTED — CORRESPONDENCE WITH country ladies between the ages of twenty five and thirty-eight, by a western farmer (a bachelor) thirty-eight years old, light hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, five feet eight inches in height; prefers to correspond with ladies with dark hair. Letters should be addressed to

EPHRAIM C. SMITH,
12-11-6t Livonia, Washington Co., Indiana.

FOR SALE.

TEN TONS 20lb SECOND HAND T RAILS, GOOD AS NEW,

Two sets new Drilling tools for 5¼inch hole one Stillwell Heater, 1000 feet 5 3 16 casing in first class condition.

RUSSELL & THOMAS,
15-1m Scrap Iron dealers, Pittsburg, Pa.

Physicians and Dentists.

DR. E. I. KIRK.

DR. J. W. RHONE, Dentist, can be found at his office and residence on North side of High Street, three doors East of Allegheny, Bellefonte, Pa. 10-16 1y

G. M. SWARTZ, Dentist, located at Bellefonte, Pa. Office in the Myers property, on Bishop street, opposite Graham's Shoe Store. 8-23

DR. J. D. GEISSINGER,

DENTIST.

A graduate of the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery, Philadelphia, has permanently located in Bellefonte, Pa., for the practice of Dentistry in all its branches, including the treatment of diseases of the mouth.

Office: Second floor, Furst's building, North side of Court House. 10-31-tf

Hardware, &c.

HARDWARE! — JAMES HARRIS & CO., ARE SELLING VERY LOW

REAPER SECTIONS AND REPAIRS,

And all kinds of Farming Tools.

RAKES FORKS SCYTHES CRADLES, SPROUT'S HAY FORKS,

ROPE BLOCKS, ETC., ETC.,

As well as all kinds of HARDWARE, to meet all demands in this line. 25

Shaving Saloons.

M. S. GRAHAM,

FASHIONABLE BARBER

In basement of the Conrad House, Bellefonte, Pa. The best of razors, sharp and keen, always on hand. He guarantees a shave without either pulling or pain. Perfumery, hair oil, hair restoratives, etc., constantly on hand. Warm and Cold Baths. 5 1 tf

WM. MILLS,

FASHIONABLE BARBER AND HAIR DRESSER.

Pleasant rooms and experienced workmen, Felty's new building, High street Bellefonte, Pa. 5 29 1y

Miscellaneous.

RAILROAD HOUSE,

Corner Front and Pine Street,

Philipsburg, Centre County, Pa.

ROBERT LOYD, Proprietor.

The best of liquors and cigars constantly on hand. The table is well supplied with the best he market affords 25 1y

$66 A WEEK in your own town, and no capital risked. You can give the business a trial without expense. The best opportunity ever offered for those willing to work. You should try nothing else until you see for yourself what you can do at the business we offer. No room to explain here. You can devote all your time or only your spare time to the business, and make great pay for every hour that you work. Women make a much as men. Send for special private term and particulars, which we mail free. $5 outfit free. Don't complain of hard times while you have such a chance. Address, H. HALLETT & CO., Portland, Maine. 11-24-1y

WILLIAMS & BRO.,

PRACTICAL HOUSE PAINTERS.

GRAINING IN ALL ITS BRANCHES,

PAPER-HANGING,

PLAIN AND DECORATIVE

KALSOMINING.

☞ Paint Shop and Office in Second Story of

McCLAIN'S BLOCK, op. BUSH HOUSE,

1-46-1y BELLEFONTE, PA.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court of Centre county, there will be exposed to public sale, on the premises, on Wednesday, the 5th day of May, 1880, a tract of land situate in Curtin township, late the real estate of JOHN H. WATKINS, deceased, adjoining lands of Curtins, Hezekiah P. Watkins, A. S. Tipton and others, containing about forty acres, more or less. Terms, one-half cash, balance in one year with interest, to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises. Sale to begin at 1 o'clock p. m. The growing crops do not pass to the purchaser.

15-3t RUDOLPH WATKINS,
Executor of John H. Watkins, dec'd.

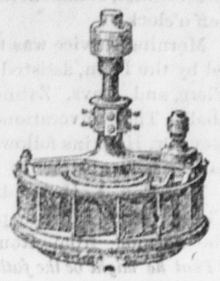
ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of administration having been granted to the undersigned on the estate of Martin Smith, deceased, late of Furguson township, Centre county, all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them, duly authenticated, for settlement.

JACOB K. RIDER,
13-6t* Administrator.

BEST business you can engage in. $5 to $20 per day made by any worker of either sex, right in their own localities. Particulars and samples worth $5 free Improve your spare time at this business. Address STINSON & CO., Maine. 1y 21 1y

Foundry and Machinists.

W. P. Duncan & Co.,



BELLEFONTE, PA.

ENGINEERS & MACHINISTS.

BELLEFONTE

PATENT WITER WHEEL,

STEAM ENCINES,

CIRCULAR SAW MILLS,

ROLLING MILL

AND

Grist Mill Machinery.

5 46a812-1f

Medical.

WARNER'S SAFE REMEDIES

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

(Formerly Dr. Orr's Kidney Cure.)

A vegetable preparation and the only sure remedy in the world for Bright's Disease, Diabetes, and ALL Kidney, Liver, and Urinary Diseases.

☞ Testimonials of the highest order in proof of these statements.

☞ For the cure of Diabetes, call for Warner's Safe Diabetes Cure.

☞ For the cure of Bright's and the other diseases, call for Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

WARNER'S SAFE BITTERS.

It is the best Blood Purifier, and stimulates every function to more healthful action, and is thus a benefit in all diseases.

It cures Scrofulous and other Skin Eruptions and Diseases, including Cancers, Ulcers, and other Sores.

Dyspepsia, Weakness of the Stomach, Constipation, Dizziness, General Debility, etc., are cured by the Safe Bitters. It is unequaled as an appetizer and regular tonic.

Bottles of two sizes; prices, 50c. and $1.00.

WARNER'S SAFE NERVINE

Quickly gives Rest and Sleep to the suffering, cures Headache and Neuralgia, prevents Epileptic Fits, and relieves Nervous Prostration brought on by excessive drink, overwork, mental shocks, and other causes.

Powerful as it is to stop pain and soothe disturbed Nerves, it never injures the system, whether taken in small or large doses.

Bottles of two sizes; prices, 50c. and $1.00.

WARNER'S SAFE PILLS

Are an immediate and active stimulus for a Torpid Liver, and cure Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Bilious Diarrhœa, Malaria, Fever and Ague, and should be used whenever the bowels do not operate freely and regularly. No other Pills require such small doses for thorough work. Price 25 cts. a box. Warner's Safe Remedies are sold by Druggists & Dealers in Medicine everywhere.

H. H. Warner & Co., Proprietors, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

☞ Send for Pamphlet and Testimonials.

OLD AND RELIABLE.

DR. SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR is a Standard Family Remedy for diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.—It is Purely Vegetable.—It never Debilitates—It is Cathartic and Tonic.

TRY IT

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR

To Have Good Health, the Liver must be kept in order; its unhealthy action causes Bilious Attacks, Jaundice, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Headache, Bowel Complaints, Seasickness, and other Disorders. The Liver is the seat of malarial diseases. The Liver Invigorator protects the system from Miasmatic influences. It Purifies the Blood, Regulates the Bowels, Assists Digestion, and Strengthens the System. The Liver Invigorator has been used in my practice and by the public, for more than 35 years, with unprecedented results.

SEND FOR CIRCULAR.

DR. SANFORD, M.D., 162 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY

ANY DRUGGIST WILL TELL YOU ITS REPUTATION.

New Advertisements.

KIDNEY-WORT

PERMANENTLY CURES KIDNEY DISEASES, LIVER COMPLAINTS, Constipation and Piles.

DR. E. H. CLARK, South Hero, Vt., says, "In cases of KIDNEY TROUBLES it has acted like a charm. It has cured many very bad cases of PILES, and has never failed to act efficiently."

NELSON FAIRCHILD, of St. Albans, Vt., says, "It is of priceless value. After sixteen years of great suffering from Piles and Costiveness it completely cured me."

C. S. HOGADON, of Berkshire, says, "one package has done wonders for me in completely curing a severe Liver and Kidney Complaint."

IT HAS WONDERFUL POWER. WHY?

BECAUSE IT ACTS ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS AND KIDNEYS AT THE SAME TIME.

Because it cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develope in Kidney and Urinary diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Female disorders.

KIDNEY-WORT is a dry vegetable compound and can be sent by mail prepaid.

One package will make six qts of medicine.

TRY IT NOW!

Buy it at the Druggists. Price, $1.00.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., Proprietors, Burlington, Vt.

$1500 TO $6000 A YEAR, or $5 to $10 a day in your own locality. No risk. Women do as well as men. Many make more than the amount stated above. No one can fail to make money fast. Any one can do the work. You can make from 50 cents to $2 an hour by devoting your evenings and spare time to the business. Nothing like it for money making ever offered before. Business pleasant and strictly honorable. Reader, if you want to know all about the best paying business before the public, send us your address and we will send you full particulars and private terms free; samples worth $5 also free; you can then make up your mind for yourself. Address, GEO. STINSON & CO., Portland, Maine. 24-1y

PIANOS Stool, Cover and Book $210 to $1600. ORGANS 12 stops, 3 set reeds 2 Knee Swells, Stool, Book, only $60. ☞ Holiday Newspaper Free. Address, Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, N. J. 14-4t

LINDSEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER

Is the greatest Blood Remedy of the age. Tetter, Scrofula, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, and all Blood diseases yield to its wonderful powers. Pure Blood is the guarantee of health. Read: "It cured my son of Scrofula."—J. E. Brooks, Painesville, O. "It cured my child of Erysipelas."—Mrs. E. Smeltzer, Lancaster, Pa. Price $1. R. E. SELLERS & CO., Pittsburgh, Pa. Sold by Druggists and Country Store Keepers.

PATENTS

OBTAINED for Inventors, in the United States, Canada, and Europe, at reduced rates. With our principal Office located in Washington, directly opposite the United States Patent Office, we are able to attend to all Patent Business with greater promptness and despatch and less cost, than other patent attorneys, who are at a distance from Washington, and who have, therefore, to employ "associate attorneys." We make preliminary examinations and furnish opinions as to patentability, free of charge, and all who are interested in new inventions and Patents are invited to send for a copy of our "Guide for obtaining Patents," which is sent free to any address, and contains complete instructions how to obtain Patents and other valuable matter. We refer to the German-American National Bank, Washington, D. C.; the Royal Swedish, Norwegian, and Danish Legations, at Washington; Hon. Joseph Casey, late Chief Justice U. S. Court of Claims; to the Officials of the U. S. Patent Office, and to Senators and Members of Congress from every Bellefonte Republican.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

The BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN is published every Wednesday at Bellefonte, Centre county Pennsylvania, by EDWARD T. TUTEN.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

One year, in advance.....$2 00
If not paid for within 6 months..... 2 50
If not paid for until expiration of year..... 3 00

No paper will be discontinued until arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers sent out of the county must be paid for in advance.

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

Special notices inserted in our local columns at 20 cents per line for each insertion.

Editorial notices in our columns, 25 cents per line for each insertion.

Marriage or death announcements published free of charge. Obituary notices, ten lines in length, free; exceeding ten lines, five cents per line.

Professional or Business Cards, not exceeding five lines, this type, $8.00 per annum.

All advertisements for a less term than three months, twenty cents per line for the first three insertions, and five cents per line for each additional insertion.

SPACE OCCUPIED.	3 mos.	6 mos.	1 year.
1 inch (12 lin' this tp'e)	$ 5 00	$ 8 00	$ 12 00
Two inches	7 00	10 00	15 00
Three inches	10 00	15 00	20 00
Four inches	11 00	17 00	25 00
Quarter column	12 00	20 00	30 00
Half column	20 00	35 00	55 00
One column	35 00	55 00	125 00

All advertisements, whether displayed or blank lines, measured by lines of this type.

All advertisements due after the first insertion.

JOB DEPARTMENT.

We have now the very best facilities for doing first-class Job Work, and solicit the patronage of all friends of the paper, together with all others who desire to obtain good work at fair prices.

We have the best workmen, the best presses, and the best type to be found anywhere.

Address all communications, relating to business, to

EDWARD T. TUTEN, Proprietor,
Bellefonte, Pa.

Republican County Executive Committee for 1880.

District.	Names.	P. O. Address
Bellefonte, N. W.	David M. Glenn	Bellefonte
do S. W.	H. Benner	Bellefonte
do W. W.	Wm Shortlidge	Bellefonte
Howard boro	Joseph Royer	Howard
Milesburg boro	Lyman T Eddy	Milesburg
Millheim do	A O Deininger	Millheim
Philipsburg do	Capt Harry Simler	Phil'burg
Unionville do	Dr E A Russell	Fleming
Benner twp	John P Seibert	Bellefonte
Boggs twp	Capt Austin Curtin	Roland
Burnside twp	Wm Stewart Jr	Moshannon
College twp	David Dale	Lemont
Curtin twp	Warren S Lucas	Howard
Ferguson O P	Cyrus Goss	Pine Grove Mills
Ferguson N P	Dan'l M Clemson	Rock Sprg's
Gregg twp	Robt H Duncan	Spring Mills
Huston twp	Ira F Davis	Julian Furnace
Howard twp	D B Fletcher	Howard
Harris twp	Geo B Jack	Boalsburg
Half Moon twp	Lary C Love	Loveville
Haines twp	Dr T T Musser	Aaronsburg
Liberty twp	D B Kunes	Blanchard
Miles twp	Reuben Grimm	Maddisonburg
Marion twp	Capt S H Bennison	Walker
Penn twp	David Kimport	Millheim
Patton twp	Wm I. Furst	Buffalo Run
Potter O P	Jas C Boal	Centre Hall
Potter N P	W J Thompson	Potters Mills
Rush twp	John A Mull	Philipsburg
Snow Shoe twp	C P Stoneroad	Snow Shoe
Spring twp	A J Swartz	Pleasant Gap
Taylor twp	D G Ganoe	Fowler
Union twp	B W Shipley	Fleming
Walker twp	Philip Waller	Nittany
Worth twp	Thomas Weston	Port Matilda

JOHN I. RANKIN, Chairman.

H. H. BENNER, } Secretaries.
CLAUDE COOK, }

Convocation of Williamsport.

The Convocation of Williamsport—which we have learned is the proper designation of the body which met in this town April 21st—opened with a meeting of business, in the lecture room of the church, at 9 a. m. The following clerical delegates were present:

Rt. Rev. Bishop Howe, of Reading.
Rev. Dr. Hopkins, of Williamsport.
Rev. Dr. Breck, of Wellsboro.
Rev. Dr. Clerc, of Philipsburg.
Rev. Mr. Zahner, of Bloomsburg.
Rev. Mr. Marshall, of Mansfield.
Rev. Mr. Starr, of Montoursville.
Rev. Mr. London, of Tioga.
Rev. Mr. Chevers, of Shamokin.
Rev. Mr. Fessenden, of Catawissa.
Rev. John Hewitt, Bellefonte.

Organized with the Bishop in the chair, and after a prayer, the convocation proceeded to the election of a secretary.

Rev. Dr. Hopkins was named, but declined, when Rev. Mr. Zahner, of Bloomsburg, was elected unanimously both secretary and treasurer. The Bishop being obliged to take the train to fulfill his appointment at Lock Haven, the subsequent proceedings were presided over by the Dean of the Convocation, the Rev. Dr. Breck, of Wellsboro.

A letter was read from Rev. Dr. Peck, of Danville, stating his inability to be present, on account of serious illness. The minutes of the last Convocation were read by the secretary and were adopted with a slight amendment. Before leaving the Bishop made some interesting statements regarding missionary work in the diocese, and a discussion followed which was participated in by Rev. Drs. Breck and Clerc, and Revs. Zahner, Hewitt and others.

For the next Convocation the following selections were made: Rev. Mr. Peck is to preach the Wednesday morning sermon, the Rev. Mr. Foley being the substitute. For essayist, Rev. Dr. Hopkins; Rev. Mr. Starr, alternate. Rev. Mr. Zahner will preach a sermon. It was resolved to hold the next Convocation at the time of the Reading Diocesan Convention. This meeting, at Reading, it was understood, will be merely casual; but a place will be then selected—probably Philipsburg—for a more full meeting, at a subsequent date. The Rev. Dr. Hopkins has announced that the subject of his essay will be, "Who was Melchizedek?" After the business meeting was concluded, the Convocation adjourned to the auditorium of the church for the more public proceedings, commencing at half-past ten o'clock.

Morning service was then conducted by the Dean, assisted by Rev. Dr. Clerc, and Revs. Zahner and Marshall. The Convocation sermon from Rev. Dr. Hopkins followed. The following is an abstract of the sermon:

The Rev. J. H Hopkins, D.D., of Christ church, Williamsport, preached the sermon, from Romans IV. 11: "That he might be the father of all them that believe." These words were spoken of Abraham. And in Galatians IV. St. Paul explains that the son of the bond woman, Hagar, means unbelieving Israel; and the son of the free woman, Sarah, means the Christian church. He also rests partly upon the miraculousness of Isaac's birth when his parents were past age, as proving the significance assigned. But Abraham, many years afterwards, when Sarah was dead, took another wife Keturah, and by her had six sons. This was no less a wonder than the birth of Isaac; and as Ishmael signifies unbelieving Israel, and Isaac the true Israel—the Christian church—so the sons of Keturah must signify the sects and schisms that have sprung up out of the bosom of Christianity. Their number was six—only half of the Apostolic number twelve. They were sent away from Isaac during Abraham's life, which signifies the necessary separation between the church and the sects which go out from her. They were sent "towards the east country," which, from Mamre, was towards the Dead Sea and the desert. This shows that they are eventually to dwindle away and disappear, while the promise to continue till the end of the world is given only to the church. Moreover, Abraham gave "all that he had" to Isaac: which shows that the whole wealth of divine knowledge, grace and power is given to the church. But to the sons of the concubines Abraham gave "gifts," which shows that every Christian sect has had some part of the truth, and grace, and power, that God has given to those who believe in him. All these other children had just as much of Abraham's blood in them as Isaac had; but none of them was descended from Sarah. And God's promise was to Abraham's seed by Sarah. The significance of the Hebrew names reinforced this interpretation. Hagar signifies flight—something transient, as the Mosaic system and Israel's unbelief are both to pass away. Ishmael means He whom God loveth, and wherever Israel is scattered throughout the world, if he will turn to God, God has solemnly promised to hear him. Keturah means incense, which signifies pure spiritual worship, and nearly all the Christian sects have started with the intention of giving a more purely spiritual worship than was to be found in the Catholic church. Her oldest son was Zimran, a singer: and wherever there is the beginning of an excitement which may lead to the formation of a sect, there is a burst of psalm-singing devotion; but this alone will do no harm. The next son was Jokshan, a fowler, one who lays snares. This signifies the proselyting spirit—getting people to join their party, as if it alone had true piety. But as yet it is only party spirit. But the third son is Medan, strife, contention and division: this shows the formation of a sect. The next is Midian—almost the same as Medan, only a little more of it, and means the reproductive power of schism. Each split soon produces another within itself, and so the list of sects goes on increasing. The next son was Ishbak, a forsaking: for at length the original gifts of the sect begin to forsake it, its energy and power and zeal forsake it, it is preparing to pass away. The last son is Shuah, the pit, which shows that they are all to come to an end. Meanwhile the blessing and promise are given to Isaac, a word which means laughter—the highest expression of confidence and joy. "Rejoice evermore; and again I say unto you, Rejoice." And his mother is Sarah, the princess, the "King's daughter," legitimate authority being the channel through which God blesses the world by His church.

After the sermon holy communion was administered, the Dean being the celebrant, assisted by other clergymen present.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At this meeting there were present, besides the clerical, the following lay delegates: Messrs. Wm. F. Reynolds and C. F. Montgomery, of Bellefonte, and John M. Hale and J. A. Mull, of Philipsburg. The regular essay was then read by Rev. Mr. London, of Tioga; subject, "The Kingdom of God."

It was agreed that the subject of the essay to be delivered before the next Convocation should be announced in the printed notices to the members.

In response to an invitation from the Dean, remarks upon the subject of the essay just read were made by several members, and a general discussion followed.

Dr. Hopkins said some thought there should be a visible head of the kingdom on earth, and it was claimed that the Bishop of Rome held that position; but Christ is the real head of the Christian kingdom, and he has nowhere declared the appointment of an earthly successor who is supreme over the rest. He is always present through the Holy Ghost, and the church needs no other visible representative of the King. The apostles and their successors often contended for the supremacy, yet none of them was placed by Christ over the others.

Mr. Hewitt wished to know, not only what the kingdom is, but who are the subjects of the kingdom. There are many religious bodies claiming to be members of the kingdom. People are apt to think the kingdom is confined to this or that organization of professed Christians, according to their own belief. Every person who has been baptised is thereby made a member of the kingdom of Christ. Might we not do away with the idea that Christ is in a far away heaven? While He reigns there He also reigns on earth, and is also present with each of his followers.

We claim to be a part of Christ's kingdom; how far shall we go in admitting that members of other denominations are also entitled to be considered as occupying a like position? that without episcopacy there was no real church. Yet he was not prepared to claim that without episcopacy there could be no kingdom. There was evidently a growing tendency to return to the episcopal form of church organization as the right one. These and other facts point to the apostolic succenorship as indicating the form of the visible kingdom in earth.

Mr. Chever asked if we might not consider those baptized as within the visible kingdom, and those not baptized as without the kingdom?

Dr. Hopkins said: This is a question of the ecclesia docens, or ecclesia credens—the church which teaches, and that which believes—the teaching body, and the great body of believers. The apostolic order is an inalienable part of the constitution of the kingdom of God on earth. It will never be done away with. Yet, any one who has been baptized and who believes in Christ is in a state of salvation, which he may forfeit by his own fault. Looking at men as organized and claiming to be churches, we cannot recognize that claim as correct, without the apostolic succession. Their baptized members may be admitted as belonging to the ecclesia credens, although their form of church organization is not that of the ecclesia docens. This he illustrated by referring to the difference between our State and National governments and the body known as Free Masons, which latter may be good citizens, while their order is a numerous, wealthy and honorable one, yet as members of it, men are not acting as citizens of our State or Nation. We can recognize individuals of other denominations as members of Christ, while not conceding that their church organizations are regular and apostolic, which latter is the only true basis of organization.

Mr. Hewitt said he was often asked by clergymen of other denominations "Why cannot we preach in your pulpit?" He illustrated the subject in this way: Organizations of Masons and Odd Fellows might hold their meetings in the same building, or the same room. Yet no master of a Masonic lodge was asked to preside over one of Odd Fellows, or vice versa. Yet the members of the two orders might have the highest regard for each other.

Dr. Breck, the Dean, said we did not go into this question of the salvation of those outside of a true church organization. We are satisfied there are thousands of such, who are much better than the organizations to which they belong. Their faith as Christians may be good, while circumstances have placed them where they are, which is their misfortune. God don't withdraw His holy spirit from them. They may be influenced by the Holy Spirit as well as we are. The Almighty takes the world as it is and gives his blessings in various ways; he does not withhold it to human beings because one is brought up in one way and another in another.

This discussion was further continued by Revs. Clerc, Zachner, and others, but we are obliged to omit even our imperfect abstract of what followed in this connection.

MISSIONARY REPORTS, ETC.

The regular meeting of the Convocation was then resumed. A long discussion followed with regard to the memorial authorized by the last Convocation to be prepared and circulated for signatures under the auspices of a committee appointed for the purpose, and to be presented at the coming convention at Reading by the Dean. The memorial is intended to secure a division of the diocese, it being originally proposed that the new diocese should comprise the ten counties forming the Convocation of Williamsport. As it was thought by some that the convention might wish to change these limits, the Rev. Mr. Hewitt offered a resolution to the effect that in case of a failure to secure a division of the diocese at the June convention upon the proposed lines, this Convocation will support a division of the diocese on such other lines as in the judgment of the convention shall be deemed most expedient and equitable. This resolution was adopted, with many expressions of a belief that the proposed division would be accomplished.

Reports of missions were then received. Some of these were interesting, but we have not space for them. The Dean reported that he expected soon to lay the corner stone of a church at Antrim, which is to be one of five to be erected in accordance with the will of a man named McGee, recently deceased, who has left $50,000 to build five Episcopal churches, to cost $10,000 each. Two of these are to be within this convocation, one in New York and two in Virginia.

EVENING SESSION.

After missionary services, addresses on the subject of foreign missions were called for, and responses were made by Rev. Mr. London, of Tioga county, Rev. Dr. Clerc, of Philipsburg, Rev. Dr. Hopkins, of Williamsport, and the Dean, Rev. Dr. Breck, of Wellsboro. There was much valuable and interesting information contained in these discourses. That of Rev. Dr. Hopkins contained a vast amount of most important information, and we especially regret our inability to give even an outline of it. It was devoted particularly to a consideration of the subject of a division of the diocese, and gave many facts concerning the benefits of such division, recurring to the early history of the church in this State, and showing the remarkable benefits that have accrued from every division that has taken place from the time the diocese of Pennsylvania was first formed under Bishop White.

These addresses, which were listened to by a considerable audience, were interspersed with singing by the choir, and practically closed the business of the Convocation, which, after prayer, was adjourned.

—Mr. Patrick Kelly, of Snow Shoe, is building a large barn on his premises.

—Saturday was a good day for the spring crops, but a poor day for business.

—A. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, will lecture in Lewistown on the 29th.

—Mr. Robert Lloyd, Philipsburg's popular landlord, was in town on Saturday, and gave us a call.

—April is the month that tries weather prophet's souls, says an exchange. It also tries boot soles.

—The curb market on Saturday was a slim affair. The rain probably prevented a great many farmers from coming in.

—Tyroners are wondering when work will begin on their new depot. We are having some "wonderment" of that kind down here, too.

—The evening train on Saturday came so near running over a cow at Duncan & Hale's mill that there wasn't much fun in it—for the cow.

—A draft for $4,130 was recently received by a soldier's widow in Hollidaysburg, said to be the largest sum that has yet been granted to a resident of Blair county.

—The chief of police and street commissioners of Altoona are engaged in notifying parties to lay and repair the boardwalks. Bellefonte officials should go and do likewise.

—Mr. E. J. Donecker, of Lancaster, veterinary surgeon, was in town Saturday and left in the evening for Lock Haven. He will return to this place to-day, and intends to remain several weeks.

—One of the marked improvements on Howard street is a new roof and other repairs on the dwelling house belonging to Mr. Thadeus Hamilton and occupied by Mr. Thos. Shaughensy.

—William Speer has on his farm, near Pleasant Gap, two very remarkable birds—a pair of geese that cost him just one hundred and ten dollars. Some might think them a very superior breed, and thereby hangs a tale

—A gentleman attempted to alight from the evening train on Saturday before it came to a standstill, but made a miscalculation and fell, receiving a severe bump on the forehead. This thing frequently happens at the depot.

"Handcuffs for Two."

Billy English, of the Brockerhoff House bar, got himself into a pretty fix Saturday night. After closing the bar he went into the billiard saloon, and seeing a pair of hardcuffs lying on the counter, thought he would try one on for the fun of the thing, and when he discovered that there were no keys about the premises with which to unlock it again he realized that there was more fun in it than he had imagined. However, he resolved to make the most of the situation, and doubtless being a believer in social equality, he went out and hunted up Graham's barber, whom he succeeded in fastening the other cuff onto. Then the joke began in earnest. Three or four men were waiting in the shop to be shaved, and English wanted to go home, but neither could go without the other, and it began to look like an all night session. Finally officer Dolan was routed out, who happened to have the lucky key, and the men were released and went on their way rejoicing.

—Edwin G. Dill, son of Rev. H. G. Dill, of Lewisburg, and brother of Ex-Senator Dill, died in Harrisburg on Friday morning last. It was claimed by the newspapers, and some of his relatives, that his death was hastened by negligence and unjust treatment while a passenger on the Pennsylvania railroad on his way home from the South; but an investigation of the case has been made, and the Messrs. Dill exonerate the company from all blame.

Kidney complaints of all description are relieved at once, and speedily cured by Kidney-Wort. It seems intended by nature for the cure of all diseases of the kidneys caused by weakness and debility. Its great tonic powers are especially directed to the removal of this class of diseases. Try it to day.

—Many improvements are in progress in all sections of the town. Besides adding to the appearances, it gives many worthy men employment.

General Conference of the M. E. Church.

Beginning on the 1st of May next, the Quadrennial session of the General Conference of the M. E. church will be held at Pike's Opera House, in Cincinnati. It is clearly apparent from present indications that it will be one of the most important meetings of the chief legislative body of American Methodists ever held. Representatives and fraternal delegates from all parts of the world will be present. The live question of Lay Representation in the annual conference, the Elective and Stationed Presiding Eldership, a Compulsory District Conference as the Methodist Unit of Organization, the Status Functions and Personnel of the Episcopacy, the election of Bishops, Editors and Secretaries, an Ecumenical Council of Methodism—these and other matters of live and absorbing interest to every intelligent Methodist will be considered, discussed and acted upon.

The importance of this great quadrennial gathering of the M. E. church from all lands, for council and legislation, will call at Cincinnati, during the month of May, the largest religious convention ever held on the American continent. The central location of Cincinnati, and its easy accessibility by scores of railroads, favors the concentration here of Methodists who come as interested spectators. Already five large excursions from Illinois alone have arranged for, and other excursions are already advertised from Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and distant States.

Fractions Floored Her.

A High street woman was trying to do some figuring yesterday. "Let's see," said she, "seventeen yards at a quarter a yard. Two quarters would be a half," wetting her pencil with the tip of her tongue—"two quarters would be a half, and two halfs would be four quarters, that's four times three—oh, dear, no it isn't." Then the pencil was wetted again, and a start made. "Seventeen yards at a quarter a yard. How much is seventeen quarters? Two quarters are a half. Seventeen quarters would be how many halves? Two quarters one half, six quarters three halves, that's one and a half, seventeen quarters would be—six times three are—" Here a pause occurred, and the pencil went up to the tongue again, while the forehead of the mathematician corrugated and was bedewed with perspiration, as if greatly excited. She turned the paper upside down, downside up, looked at it several times, sighed, and was about to commence all over again, when her husband entered. "John, how much is seventeen yards at a quarter a yard?"

"Four into 17, 4 and 1 over—$4.25," promptly replied John.

"That's what I had it," said his wife, "but I wasn't sure I was right."

"Figured all over the paper to get it?" queried John.

"No, sir!" she answered, indignantly, and growing as red as the red, red rose, "I guess I studied mental arithmetic at school, and," crimping the paper up, and putting it in her pocket—"and have just got as much sense as some people who think they are so powerful smart!"

John didn't say anything, but when he found that piece of paper, a few hours afterwards, he whistled. —Free Press.

THE LATEST NEWS.

HARRISBURG, April 26.—William H. Kemble, Charles B. Salter and Emile J. Petroff, of Philadelphia, came here last evening in company with their counsel. William F. Rumberger and Jesse R. Crawford were already here. Judge Pearson called them for sentence about noon to-day. He delivered a rather long charge in which he dwelt upon the enormity of the crime of corrupt solicitation, and its pernicious influence upon the community. He said this species of crime has been a common thing in the Legislature for years, and that the new constitution had stepped in and interposed a legal remedy which the court was compelled to take cognizance of. Petroff and Rumberger were more culpable than any other of the accused, inasmuch as they were members of the Legislature at the time. The court, however, must issue its mandate in accordance with the law, whether it was in the case of a man worth a million of dollars or a beggar in rags who stole a loaf of bread. Kemble and Rumberger then made a few remarks, denying their guilt, after which the court imposed the following sentence on each of the convicts: $1,000 fine, and one year's imprisonment with solitary and separate confinement at hard labor in the eastern penitentiary.

The court house was crowded with spectators, and the streets adjoining were filled with people anxious to get a glimpse of the culprits. Much astonishment is expressed at the severity of the sentence. Shortly after twelve o'clock the sheriff and his deputies removed all of the sentenced prisoners to the jail where they are now awaiting removal to the Eastern penitentiary.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 23.—Charles De Young was shot and killed at 7:30 this evening by J. M. Kalloch, son of J. S. Kalloch, in the Chronicle office.

LEXINGTON, S. C., April 23.—At two o'clock to-day Alexander Williams was hanged here for the murder of Smith Fields, which occurred more than four years ago.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 24.—Andrew Sneddon, the coal miner stabbed by Jake Bond on April 16, died yesterday. There is much excitement among the miners, who seem disposed to lynch Bond.

CABUL, April 24.—General Stewart entered Ghuzni on the 20th inst., after a successful battle the day before in which the Afghans lost more than a thousand men killed. General Stewart's loss was 17 men killed and 115 wounded.

LONDON, April 24.—Mr. Gladstone has undertaken to form a ministry at the instance of Queen Victoria, who sent for him yesterday afternoon, after an interview with Lords Granville and Hartington. Mr. Gladstone was welcomed by a great crowd on his return to London.

PETERSBURG, Va., April 24.—A construction train on the Norfolk and Petersburg railroad ran into two cows near Ivar station last night and was thrown from the track. Captain Baker and a colored man were instantly killed and the engineer and fireman badly injured.

LONDON, April 24.—The lord mayor has received a telegram from Bagdad which says: "A terrible famine is raging throughout Mesopotamia and Kurdistan. Immense massses of starving christians are crowding hither for relief. Our resources are totally inadequate to meet their necessities.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Edward Nugent and Henry J. Radamier were hanged in the city jail yard at ten o'clock this morning. Nugent shot his wife on the 20th day of August, 1876, while both of them were intoxicated. Redameier's victim was Franz Kosse, a respectable old shipbuilder. The homocide was committed August 19, 1878, and was so utterly wanton and motiveless that the murderer's sanity has been questioned.

A statement made by Nugent, and placed in the hands of Judge Wm. C. Jones, yesterday, has been opened since the execution. In it Nugent denies having killed his wife, refers to her death as an accident and says that his eldest daughter, who was not a witness in his trial, she having been sent out of town, could have cleared up the mystery. He also says the evidence against him was a mass of lies, and charges his attorney with mismanaging his case.

NEWTON, April 23.—Frederick Crill was hanged here at 11:20 this morning. He met his fate with more composure than had been expected.

The jury of twenty-four men who were present to witness the execution arrived at 10 a. m. The utmost caution was taken to prevent any of the large crowd who had gathered into the town from getting a glimpse of the execution. At 11:21 a. m., Crill was taken from his cell. Mr Zabriski offered an impressive prayer. Crill stood erect but with great difficulty. When the drop fell he made no violent struggle and seemed to die easy. The crowd outside made desperate efforts to get a view, climbing on tops of houses and high fences and were considerably enraged by their disappointment.

The affair was attended with much excitement, but the town was otherwise quiet. A brass band played in front of the court house during the execution. When the sheriff put on the handcuffs Crill requested him to take them off and warm them and also to warm the noose. He expressed himself as prepared to die.

Cheap Girls.

A girl who makes herself too cheap is one to be avoided. No young man—not even the worst, except for a base purpose—wants anything to do with a cheap young lady. For a wife, none but a fool or a rascal will approach such a woman. Cheap jewelry nobody will touch if he can get any better. Cheap girls are nothing but the refuse, and the young men know it, and they will look in every other direction for a life long partner before they will give a glance at the pinchbeck stuff that tinkles at every turn for fascinating the eye of any that will look. You think it is quite the correct thing to talk loudly and coarsely, be boisterous and boydenish in all public places, to make yourself so bold and forward and commonplace everywhere that people wonder whether you ever had a mother, or a home, or anything to do! So be it. You will probably be taken for what you are worth, and one of these years, if you do not make worse than a shipwreck of yourself, you will begin to wonder where the charms are that you once thought yourself possessed of, and what evil spirit could have so befooled you. Go on; but remember cheap girls attract nobody but fools and rascals.

Low Prices for Butter.

The New York Tribune in its market report, explained why some butter is sold for such low prices. In speaking of butter it said "Light colored goods are very hard to dispose of and several lots were thought well sold at 8 to 10cents." If butter makers would get the top price, they should use the Perfect Butter Color, made by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington Vt. It gives a pure dandelion color and never turns red, or rancid, but tends to improve and preserve the butter.

COULDN'T COMPREHEND.—"Did you make the train?" asked the anxious questioner.

"No," said smarty, "it was made in the car shops."

"I mean did you catch the train?" with a slightly embarrassed manner.

"Of course not; it's not infectious," was the cute reply.

"Well, you conflummigated fool, did you arrive at the depot in time?"

"No, you verdant idiot, I arrived in a barouche."

"Oh, you antique simpleton, did you board the cars?"

"Why, you antediluvian muddlebrain," howled the smart man once more, "you know I don't keep a boarding house."

"SIR," roared a man, out in Nebraska, striding up to a neighbor, "Sir, you are a liar."

"I am," exclaimed the astonished neighbor. "How do you know I am?"

"Because I know it; because I have found it out."

"How long have you been living here?"

"Six weeks."

"Oh, well, probably you do know, then."

In ordar to induce the ladies to vote, the Elmira Free Press moves that the polls be established in a millinery store where there is a perpetual opening.

Pithy Paragraphs.

An Illinois racehorse is named "Chicago Girl." Of course it is very fast.—Boston Post.

Wisdom for April—Never, never go out without your umbrella—or some other person's.

"What do you ask for that article?" asked an old gentleman of a pretty shop girl. "Five dollars." "Ain't you a little dear?" "Why," she replied, "all the young man tell me so." The old gentleman looked as if he thought he had been misunderstood.

Boston has the champion mean man. He was obliged to have a large safe hoisted from the street to a third story window, and caused it to be done at night, when the crowd that always enjoys such a sight couldn't have seen the affair even if they had known about it.

An Oil City man who recently traveled in Europe, said he was at dinner one day in Paris, and while telling a story was attacked with a sudden and continuous fit of sneezing. When he ceased a Russian gentleman at another table, named Plitcheekee, turned around and complimented him upon his excellent and correct pronunciation of the Russian language.

Guard Against Disease.

If you find yourself getting billious, head heavy, mouth foul, eyes yellow, kidneys disordered, symptoms of piles tormenting you, take at once a few doses of Kidney-Wort. It is nature's great assistant. Use it as an advance guard—don't wait to get down sick.

Philadelphia One Price Clothing House.

The Philadelphia Branch of 26 North Third Street

ONE PRICE CLOTHING STORE,

Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa.

The Largest Stock of Clothing Ever Brought to Centre County, Which They Retail at Wholesale Prices.

A. STERNBURG can be found at this Store.

SAMUEL LEWINS,
Manager.

12-4 tf.

Lawrence L. Brown—Coal, Grain, Plaster, &c.

Coal! Coal! Coal!

Grain! Grain! Grain!

LAWRENCE L. BROWN,

Dealer in

COAL, GRAIN, PLASTER, &c.

OFFICE, GRAIN ELEVATOR AND COAL YARD

Near South End Bald Eagle Valley Ralroad.

WILKESBARRE and SHAMOKIN

ANTHRACITE COAL!!

Best Qualities Always on Hand,

☞WELL SCREENED, DELIVERED PROMPTLY AND WEIGHTS GUARANTEED.☜

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID FOR

ALL KINDS OF GRAIN AND SEED.

Also keeps on hand a large stock of coarse grains which he sells at lowest market prices, either in small lots or by car loads. It is my endeavor to give good satisfaction to all those who favor me with their patronage, and by so doing I hope to have a continuance of the large trade I have enjoyed since succeeding the late firm of Shortlidge & Co.

11-26-tf

WITH INCREASED ROOM, AN ADDITION OF HELP, WITH IMPROVED LIGHT,

Added to an Immense Stock of Everything in Our Line, Bought Previous to the Late Advance in Prices,

We are now willing to share our advantages with our ever increasing trade.

MEN'S, YOUTHS', BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING,

Of the celebrated Rochester make; best quality; better lined; better made and better fits than any other offered in any market, with prices equally as low.

CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER AND GOOD FITS GUARANTEED.

CARPETS we are now offering at 25 per cent less than prices in first hands. Our stock consists of Body Brussels, Tapestry, 3-ply, Ingrain, Damask and Venetian, Rag, Cottage and Hemp, the largest assortment in the county. We invite a careful inspection by those intending to purchase.

OUR DRYGOODS WERE BOUGHT EARLY. OWING TO THIS FACT WE CANNOT BE UNDERsold, and our stock comprises everything under that head. Shoes! Shoes! Shoes! Ladies', misses', children's, men's, youths', boys'. The largest stock, the best assortment, superior quality, the lowest prices. We deal in everything, and by honorable square dealing, low prices, no misrepresentation, good light, and prompt attention we defy all honorable competition.

SAMUEL LEWINS,

THE OLDEST GENERAL MERCHANTS IN THE COUNTY.

Bellefonte, April 14.

Bellefonte Republican.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Farm and Fireside.

Setting Milk.

It seems now to be admitted by all scientists in dairy management that the sooner we can cool the milk the quicker will the process of creaming commence, and by keeping it a low temperature the more perfect will it be. I would advise, therefore, that until the deep-setting system is adopted, which I forsee it will be at a not very distant period, the milk should be cooled as soon as it is drawn from the cow, and before it is set for creaming. This process is more rapidly and more efficiently done by passing it over a milk refrigerator, when that can be had; but where that is not in use it can be cooled very fairly by the process adopted in Holland, viz by putting it in tin or brass vessels to stand for a short time in a cistern in cold water. If the shallow system be followed, I am disposed to recommend tin pans pressed out of a solid piece and not jointed, as being about the most generally useful. Glazed earthenware is used, but unless a good quality and well glazed, I do not recommend it, and when of a good quality it is expensive, and being very easily broken it is a costly item. Enameled iron pans are used, but are liable to the objection that the enamel does not wear well, and that they are cumbersome and expensive. Wood keelers have been very generally used in Ireland and on parts of the Continent, but I think that, owing to the labor required to keep them clean, they must be superceded, which I find is rapidly happening. I have already described the deep-setting system; and so far as experience goes, it would appear as if it is probable that it will be more largely adopted as it becomes known. —Mr. Willard.

On several occasions, says the Evening Star, we have pointed out the value of butterene, or oleomargarine, contending that the only reason why it is not purchased as freely as genuine dairy butter is because a wrong impression prevails in regard to its constituent parts and the method of its manufacture. In regard to these points all skepticism or doubt can readily be removed by investigation.

Dr. Van Der Weyde, of New York, goes so far as to maintain that the manufacturers should maintain that oleomargarine "is butter, only made by an improved process. In place of relying upon the cow to secrete its fat into the milk, and depriving the calf of its natural food by milking the cow, and abstracting the fat from the milk by churning it, they now take the fat directly when the cattle are slaughtered, and instead of using all this fresh fat for soap making, etc., for which much of it is too good, they change it into butter, which is perfectly identical with butter made from milk."

This is the opinion of a gentleman who stands high as an analytical chemist, and who appears to have given the subject the closest attention.

While it is clear that the law of our State must be obeyed in regard to the stamping and labeling of oleomargarine or "butterene," it is also clear that prejudice stands largely in the way of its more general use. We confess to sharing that prejudice, in common with most people.

The Milk Periods.—The period of milking may be classed in three parts. For the first six to seven weeks after calving, the largest quantity of milk per day is produced. After this the yield falls off pretty considerably, but then remains at about the same figure for two or three months, when a steady decline sets in until the cow is perfectly dry. By careful feeding the best parts of the milking periods may be prolonged, and this ought to be the aim of all milk producers. If green fodder and other food, which stimulates milk secretion, can be used at the right time, a considerable extra quantity of milk may be produced. During the milking period, the proportion of casein increases. Milk produced by cows soon after calving contains, therefore, more butter and less casein than later, and the difference is great enough to make itself felt in the larger dairies, if the cows calve about the same season of the year.

Cream Globules.—The best of the cream globules rise soonest to the surface, because they are the largest, and the flavoring oils rise with them because they are the most volatile; hence it is that the finest butter is that which is made from cream that is skimmed before all of it that will rise has risen to the surface, while that which rises afterwards but tends to reduce the quality. Cream is a singular product; of it will not rise—would not rise in a month, even if the milk could be kept sweet during that period, and some of the globules actually sink instead of rise, whilst others remain suspended, neither going up nor down. Thus the specific gravity of the globules varies, not on account of size only, but also on account of composition; but, in any case, the cream which, under ordinary conditions, rises in the first 12 hours, will make the finest butter.—Dr. DeKlinze.

The Housekeeper.

Apple Dumplings.—Take some finely sifted flour, say half a pound, and quarter of a pound of suet, very finely shred and well freed from skin. Mix the suet and flour, and a pinch of salt and half a teaspoonful of baking powder, with sufficient cold water or milk to make it of the right consistency. Knead it well and roll it out to the thickness required. Divide this paste into as many pieces as are required for the dumplings. Take some large sized apples, peel, core, sprinkle them with moist sugar, then insert into the cavity of each some butter, sugar and a clove. Cover them with the paste and join the edges together. Tie each dumpling up in a floured cloth and boil half an hour. Untie them carefully, and turn them out without breaking them. Serve with whipped cream and sugar.

Sour Braten, or a Sour Pot roast.—Several days before the cooking of the meat is to be done take a nice piece of beef from the round, rub well with salt and pepper, and lay it in a vessel, covering with vinegar spiced according to taste. Lay with it a carrot and an onion, or a clove or garlic. After lying three or four hours, take it out and drain it in a colander while you heat a large tablespoonful of dripping in a pot. Now lay the meat in the fat and let it brown on all sides; dredge well with flower. An old crust of bread is an improvement to the sauce. Add a very little boiling water, and let it stew at the side of the fire, where it will only simmer, for at least an hour, or for each inch in height a half an hour. Of course, as the water boils away more is to be added, so that at the end there will be enough in the pot for sauce.—G. M. L.

Pickled Pigs' Feet.—Get number of fresh and nicely cleaned pigs' feet and boil in slightly salted water until tender. While warm remove the horny tips from the end of the toes. Pack in a stone jar. Meanwhile heat two dozen whole peppers, a dozen cloves and a dozen blades of mace. Give one boil and pour over the still warm pigs' feet. Put a plate over them with a weight on top to keep them under the vinegar and set away in a cool place. This dish is very nice for lunch or supper at this time of year when one has become tired of the winter diet. They are very healthful and excellent for dyspeptics.

Fuchsias.—Fuchsias, after being exhausted with blooming, should have the terminal shoots of all their branches clipped off; then set aside for two or three weeks giving very little water; then repot in soil composed of well decomposed leaf mould, mixed with a sprinkle of good garden soil, a few rusty nails and a layer of charcoal at the bottom of the pot to secure good drainage. In a few weeks new shoots full of flower buds will start off growing rapidly.

Lemon Ginger Cake.—Quarter pound of butter, one-half pound of sugar, three eggs, one small cup of milk, the same quantity of molasses three and a quarter pounds of flour, teaspoonful of ginger, one of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of saleratus dissolved in the milk, the rind of two lemons and the juice of one. Bake in a quick oven.—S. S.

English Buns.—Quarter pound of flour, one-half pound of butter, four eggs, one wineglass of yeast, one pint of milk, one wineglass of brandy, and rosewater mixed, with a little cinnamon and nutmeg. After it is well raised add a half pound of sugar and six ounces of flour. Bake in a moderately hot oven.—L. H. V.

Preparation of Wool for Market.

Clean wool and well bred wool brings the best prices. Wool free from dirt, such as sand, soil, dung and sweet balls, gum, grease, burs, free from hard or bleached ends, is always salable at full market prices, and to reliable people. It should not be tied up too tight in fleece, should not be enveloped in several yards of heavy jute or hemp twine. It should be packed tightly in the bale or bag, but loosely in the fleece. A careful shearer—and none others should be employed—will keep the fleece together. A careful roller will see that not a fibre goes in the fleece but what belongs to it. If a box roller is used, see that it leaves the fleece open and light and attractive; a fleece of wool may be pressed so tightly as to be rejected by even a good judge of wool as a heavy fleece. There is a medium in all this. Not too loose as to appear "taggy," not too tight as to appear "soggy." In a word, be honest in handling your wool. Let us build up a reputation for our fine wools.

Summary of the News.

Baltimore, April 20.—Archbishop Gibbons, accompanied by the Rev. Fathers Alfred A. Curtis and B. J. McManus, left this morning for New York, where they will take passage for Rome. They will visit Cardinal McCloskey.

Oil City, April 20.—A brakeman named A. Rhodes on the Allegheny Valley train which reaches Oil City at 9 o'clock, yesterday fell under the wheels at Franklin, and was killed almost instantly. His legs were frightfully mangled and his skull crushed in.

London, April 20.—The United States frigate Constellation, from New York, with provisions and clothing for the famishing poor of Ireland, was signaled off Roche's point at 7:30 this morning, and entered Queenstown harbor at nine o'clock.

Chad's Ford, April 20.—The Chad's Ford farmers' club of Chester county, knowing the sales of cattle imported from Hartford Co., Maryland, where the disease of pleuropneumonia is very prevalent, and that these cattle have been sold at Chad's Ford, first in small lots of ten or fifteen head, and now forty head are to be sold, cautions farmers against purchasing such stock.

Cincinnati, April 21.—About one o'clock yesterday morning, at Corunna, DeKalb county, Indiana, a party of twenty went to the house of Runis Miller, whose daughter had been recently married. Isaac Miller, brother of the bride, went out to try and induce them to go away, and being assaulted by John Williams, Miller shot him dead. Miller was put in jail.

London, April 22.—During a gale yesterday on the Scottish coast nineteen fishermen were drowned.

Wilmington, April 22.—The Star publishes an interview with the leader of the Sherman movement here, in which it appears that out of sixteen delegates to the Chicago convention, thirteen are for Sherman and three for Grant.

New York, April 22.—The coroner's inquest was held yesterday in the case of William Zimmerman, a wealthy merchant of this city, who committed suicide on Tuesday. The jury decided that he took his life in a fit of temporary insanity, as no cause for such an act could be found.

London, April 22.—It is now certain that the ministry has resigned.

Windsor Castle, April 22.—The Queen has accepted Lord Beaconsfield's resignation as prime minister, and has sent a special message to Lord Arlington desiring his attendance at the castle.

New York, April 22.—An accident of a fatal character, and which caused intense excitement, occurred at the Madison Square Garden last night. The Hahnemann Hospital fair, which opened a week ago, was in progress, and there were about eight hundred persons in the building. At half-past nine half the front of the building facing on Madison avenue gave way, the wall falling outwards. Part of the roof also fell in with a crash. This portion of the building was used as a dancing hall and picture gallery of the fair. It is not at this time known how many persons were killed, but one lady has so far been taken out of the debris dead, and one wounded. Two horses in the street were instantly killed, and one so badly injured that it had to be shot. Several hack drivers were injured. Commissioner Gorman and a large detachment of the fire department and police were promptly on the spot.

Rumor gives the injured on the street at from six to twelve. The killed and wounded number at least ten. Killed already found, three: and wounded seven. Mrs. W. A. Ogden Hegemann, a prominent lady manager of the fair, was the first person taken out of the debris. She was supposed to be dead, but some signs of life being discovered, she was taken to Bellevue hospital. Wm. F. Tileston, of New York, had a leg broken. Mrs. Jas. Smith, of Flushing, had an arm broken and other injuries. The part of the building which fell was mainly occupied as an art gallery. The pictures were loaned and were insured for $150,000 for fire alone, but as far as known not against other accidents. It is likely that the pictures are so much injured as to be almost worthless.

St. Louis, April 24.—The tornado of Sunday last seems to have extended over a much greater breadth of country, and was more deadly and devastating in its effects than any storm that has occurred in the west for years. The reports show that it dealt death and destruction not only over nearly half of Missouri, but raged with great furey through the northern half of Arkansas, and a considerable part of eastern Kansas. At Shawnee Mission, in the latter State, a number of persons returning from a funeral at three o'clock, were overtaken by the storm, and took refuge in a shed adjoining a large brick store of Mr. Rautt. Shortly after the party had taken shelter a part of the store was blown down upon the shed, burying under it a dozen or more persons in the ruins, and very seriously injuring D. G. Campbell, Mrs. J. T. Wilson, Mollie Brown, and Lillie Strong and more or less injuring the remainder of the party. At 8:30 p. m. a regular tornado struck Fayetteville, Arkansas, and furrowed a track through the city from southwest to northeast, destroying or badly damaging almost every building in its track. Every house on the south side of the square, excepting the Democrat office, was demolished, and barns, outhouses and trees swept out of existence. Mrs. Victoria Glass and a colored girl were killed, and ten to fifteen persons and a number of children wounded more or less seriously. About twenty business houses and several residences were either destroyed or very badly damaged. Loss probably amount to $100,000.

A special from Marshfield says a number of the killed have been buried without identification, and as no record is kept, it is impossible to obtain an accurate list of the dead. The citizens are organized into committees for various purposes. One hundred and twelve residences were destroyed. The loss on buildings is estimated at $300,000; on business houses, $90,000, covered by fire policies amounting to $17,000 in Springfield, Mass., Lycoming, New York Underwriters, Phœnix and Hartford. A report comes from Panther valley of seven persons being killed by the storm. Numerous deaths are also reported from Greene county.

MERCANTILE APPRAISEMENT.

THE venders of foreign and domestic merchandise, distillers and brewers, brokers, &c., in Centre county, will take notice that they are appraised and classed by the undersigned appraiser of merchantile and other license tax for the year 1880, as follows, to wit:

AARONSBURG.

NAMES.	BUSINESS.	CLASS.	AM'T.
Fiedler & Runkle	Merchant	13	10 75
Philips & Bro.	Merchant	13	10 75
Yearick, Thomas	Grocer	14	7 75
Musser, M. M.	Merchant	13	10 75

BELLEFONTE.

Spitzer, I. H.	Bottler of beer	14	7 75
Valentines & Co.	General merchants	4	80 75
M'Farlane, Wilson & Co.	Hardware	10	20 75
Hicks, H. K.	Hardware	10	20 75
Harris, Jas. & Co.	Hardware	10	20 75
Loeb, S. & A.	Merchants	10	20 75
Green, F. P.	Druggist	13	10 75
Guggenheimer, I. & Co.	Merchants	10	20 75
Smith, C.	Confectioner	14	7 75
Brew, S. A. & Son	Grocers	12	12 75
Miller, J. C. & Co.	Book store	14	7 75
Weaver, H. C.	Tobacconist	14	7 75
Goldman, H. D.	Clothier	14	7 75
Stitzer, H. Y.	Book store	14	7 75
Sweney, W. A.	Tobacconist	14	7 75
Sweney, W. A.	Billiards		40 75
Mann, J. F.	Merchant	12	13 25
Harris, John	Druggist	14	7 75
Joseph Bros. & Co.	Merchant	10	20 75
Lyon & Co.	Merchant	9	25 75
Powers & Son	Boots and shoes	13	10 75
Goldsmith, Stein & Hexter	Clothiers	14	7 75
Wagner, D. M.	Merchant	10	20 75
Sechler & Co.	Grocers	11	15 75
Cruse, A. J.	Tobacconist	14	7 75
Richard, F. C.	Jeweler	14	7 75
Blair, Frank P.	Jeweler	14	7 75
Weaver, W. H.	Grocer	14	7 75
Gordon & Landis	Machinery	14	7 75
Baney, G. A.	Confectionery	14	7 75
Lindsey, H. J.	Tobacconist	14	7 75
Brachbill, John	Furniture	14	7 75
Hoffer, John	Merchant	13	10 75
Graham & Son	Boots and shoes	14	7 75
Graham & Co.	Boots and shoes	14	7 75
Thomas, G. W.	Grocer	14	7 75
Crider, P. B. & Son	Lumber	13	10 75
Wilkinson, W. H.	Sample dealer	13	10 75
Zeller, J. & Son	Druggists	13	10 75
Beezer, Ferdinand	Whisky distiller	13	25 75
Haas, Louis	Brewer	13	25 75
Brown, Lawrence L.	Grain and coal	11	15 75
Alexander & Co.	Grain and coal	10	20 75
Lamb & Callaway	Paints	14	7 75
Sarbeck, John	Fish and fruit	14	7 75
Burnsides, Thomas	Sample agent	14	7 75
Wilson, L. F.	Confectioner	14	7 75
Doll, Louis	Boots and shoes	14	7 75
Montgomery & Co.	Merchant tailor	14	7 75
Yeager & Downing	Tobacconists	14	7 75
Bunnell & Aikens	Sewing machines	14	7 75
Schreyer, William	Furniture	14	7 75
Cedar Joseph	Confectionery	14	7 75
Strickland, Cyrus	Grocer	14	7 75
Blackford, George	Tobacconist	14	7 75
Meese, John	Grocer	14	7 75
Sands, J. H.	Confectionery	14	7 75
Singer S. Machine Co.	Sewing machines	14	7 75
Kirk, E. I.	Druggist	14	7 75
Twitmyre, Wilbur	Stoves and tinware	14	7 75
Somerville, James L.	Merchant	14	7 75
Sturdevant, E. M.	Lumber	13	10 75
Harper Bros.	Merchants	9	25 75
Bovland & Newman	Merchants	9	25 75

BLANCHARD.

Kunes, J. I.	Merchant	13	10 75
Singer, W. M. & Co.	Merchant	13	10 75
Fowler, John T.	Merchant	14	7 75

BOALSBURG.

Jack, Geo. B.	Merchant	14	7 75
Stewart, J. W.	Druggist	14	7 75
Stover, S. H.	Merchant	14	7 75
Dinges, J. N.	Hardware	14	7 75

CENTRE HALL.

Dinges, C.	Confectionery	14	7 75
Deininger, J. O.	Hardware	14	7 75
Murray, J. D.	Druggist	14	7 75
Wolf, William	Merchant	12	13 25
Boal, William	Merchant	14	7 75

CENTRE HILL.

Kerlin, A. S.	Merchant	14	7 75
Strohm, Michael	Merchant	14	7 75

COBURN.

Gregninger & Son	Merchants	14	7 75
Smith & Co.	Grain and coal	11	15 75
Stover, G. W.	Distiller	13	25 75

FILLMORE.

McIntire, L. B.	Merchant	14	7 75

FOWLER P. O.

Fowler, J. T.	Merchant	14	7 75

HALF MOON.

Grey, W. S. & Son	Merchants	13	10 75
Griffin, J. H.	Grocer	14	7 75

HOWARD.

Cook, Robert	Merchant	14	7 75
Lucas & Bro.	Merchants	14	7 75
Lauth, Bernard	Merchant	10	20 75
Moore, H. A.	Druggist	14	7 75
Robb, William	Merchant	14	7 75
Weber & Co.	Merchants	13	10 75
Antes, J. B.	Merchant	14	7 75

HOUSERVILLE.

Houser, L. M. & Co.	Merchants	14	7 75

HUBLERSBURG.

Brown, Henry	Merchant	13	10 75
Goodhart, S. H.	Merchant	13	10 75

JULIAN.

Hoover, J. C.	Merchant	14	7 75
Irvin, Daniel	Merchant	14	7 75

LEMONT.

Thompson, Jr., J. I.	Merchant	13	10 75
Taylor, D. F.	Merchant	14	7 75

LINDEN HALL.

Hess, Daniel & Son	Merchants	13	10 75
Stam, J. W.	Merchant	14	7 75

LOVEVILLE.

Love, James & Son	Merchants	14	7 75

MADISONBURG.

Ocker, Andrew	Merchant	13	10 75

MILESBURG.

Else, C. H. & Bro.	Druggists	14	7 75
Boggs, A. J.	Grocer	14	7 75
Hibler, John	Merchant	14	7 75
Miles, W. B. & Sons	Merchants	14	7 75
McClain, A. M.	Merchant	13	10 75
McCoy & Linn	Merchants	10	20 75

MILLHEIM.

Musser & Smith	Hardware	13	10 75
Campbell, E. C.	Merchant	14	7 75
Eisenhuth, J.	Druggist	14	7 75
Foote, J. D.	Merchant	14	7 75
Gephart & Musser	Coal, salt and plaster	14	7 75
Lamy, M.	Liquor	14	25 75
Snook, J. W.	Merchant and liquor	13	25 75
Stem, J. W.	Merchant	14	7 75
Tomlinson, H. H.	Grocer	14	7 75
Kreamer, Jonathan	Distiller	13	25 75

NITTANY HALL.

Beck & Martin	Merchants	14	7 75

PENN HALL.

Fisher, J. B.	Merchant	11	15 75

PLEASANT GAP.

Eckenroth, Henry	Merchant	14	7 75
Haag, G.	Whiskey distiller	13	25 75
Crownover & Son	Merchants	14	7 75

PHILIPSBURG.

Ayers, Dr.	Merchant	14	7 75
Fleck, S. K.	Merchant	14	7 75
Flagle, G. S.	Hardware	14	7 75
Gray, M. G.	Merchant	13	10 75
Gray, I. V.	Merchant	9	25 75
Ganoe, J. A.	Confectionery	14	7 75
Hirlinger, C. G.	Clothier	13	10 75
Hale, J. M. & Co.	Hardware	13	15 75
Hoover, Hugh & Co.	Merchants	10	20 75
Kessler & Huffington	Merchants	10	20 75
Jones, Mull & Co.	Hardware	13	10 75
McKinney, R. D.	Druggist	14	7 75
Meyers, T. J.	Grocer	14	7 75
Nutall, John & Co.	Merchants	13	15 75
Pierce, J. H.	Merchant	11	15 75
Switzer, L. & R.	Book and stationery	13	7 75
Stranse, Lehman & Co.	Merchants	10	20 75
Schoonover, J. N.	Boots and shoes	14	7 75
Haworth, John	Confectionery	14	7 75
Mull, R. F.	Druggist	14	7 75
Jones, Alfred	Hardware	13	10 75
Grey, I. V.	Merchant	14	7 75
Fleming, O. S.	Stationery and conf.	14	7 75

PINE GLENN.

Boak, G. R.	Merchant	14	7 75

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Sample, J. C. & Co.	Merchants	13	10 75
Snyder, M. D.	Merchant	14	7 75
Smith, J. R., Jr.	Drug and grocery	14	7 75

PORT MATILDA.

Hoover & Reese	Merchants	14	7 75
Smith, A. J.	Merchant	14	7 75

POTTER'S MILLS.

Thompson & Smith	Merchants	14	7 75
Strong, Samuel	Merchant	14	7 75

REBERSBURG.

Frank, S. & Son	Merchants	14	7 75
Stover, W. F.	Merchant	14	7 75
Brumgart, J. R.	Merchant	14	7 75

ROCK SPRINGS.

Ewing, A. G. & Co.	Merchants	13	10 75

ROLAND.

Curtin & Co.	Merchants	11	15 75

SANDY RIDGE.

Jackson, W. L.	Merchant	12	13 25
Miller, W. R.	Merchant	12	13 25

SNOW SHOE.

Somerville, Krider & Co.	Merchants	10	20 75
Boak, G. R. & Co.	Merchants	12	13 75
Williams, Herbert	Grocer	14	7 75

SPRING MILLS.

Grenoble, I. J.	Merchant	13	10 75
Krumrine & Son	Coal & Grain	13	10 75
Duncan & Son	Merchants	14	7 75
Long, J. D.	Coal & Grain	14	7 75

STATE COLLEGE.

Stuart, J. W.	Grocer	14	7 75
Hamill & Thompson	Merchants	13	10 75

TUSSEYVILLE.

Swartz, S. M.	Merchants	14	7 75

UNIONVILLE.

Griest, A. J. & T. E.	Merchants	11	15 75
Leathers, B. F. & Son	Merchants	12	13 25
Cleaver, Jesse	Merchants	14	7 75

WALKER.

Yearick & Son	Merchants	14	7 75

WOODWARD.

Speiglemyer, G. R.	Merchant	13	10 75
Snook & Fees	Distillers	13	25 75

WOLF'S STORE.

Emerick, J. S.	Merchant	14	7 75

ZION

Solt, David	Merchant	14	7 75

Take notice, all who are concerned in the above appraisement, that an appeal will be held in the Commissioners' office, in Bellefonte, on Friday, the 21st day of May, 1880, between the hours of 10 P. M and 4 P. M., when and where you can attend if you think proper.

NELSON A. LUCAS, Appraiser.

Bellefonte, April 22, 1880. 22 4w

APPLICANTS FOR TAVERN LICENSE.

NAMES.	POST OFFICE.	CLASS.	AM'T.
Brown, Edward	Bellefonte	5	50 75
Faulkner, C. A.	Philipsburg	5	50 75
Garman, Daniel	Bellefonte	5	50 75
Haag, Gottlieb	Pleasant Gap	5	50 75
Bush, D. G.	Bellefonte	5	50 75
Teller, W. R.	Bellefonte	5	50 75
Kreamer, Jonathan	Millheim	5	50 75
Musser, W. S.	Millheim	5	50 75
Kuhns, Samuel	Blanchard	5	50 75
Kling, Joel, jr.	Walker	5	50 75
Kohlbecker, Alois A.	Milesburg	5	50 75
Lloyd, Robert	Philipsburg	5	50 75
Ramsdale, John	Philipsburg	5	50 75
Passmore, James	Philipsburg	5	50 75
Taylor, Robert	Philipsburg	5	50 75
Miller, George	Spring Mills	5	50 75
Uzzle, John G.	Snow Shoe	5	50 75
Steffy, Shadrack	Pine Grove	5	50 75
Stover, P. H.	Coburn	5	50 75
Shafer, Reuben V.	Howard	5	50 75
Robb, Henry	Nittany Hall	5	50 75
Ruhl, David H.	Potters Mills	5	50 75
Odenkirk, J. H.	Centre Hall	5	50 75
Meyer, D. J.	Centre Hall	5	50 75
Hayes, Jeffrey	Philipsburg	5	50 75
Delong, J. L.	Blanchard	5	50 75

APPLICANTS FOR SALOON LICENSE.

Matley, James	Philipsburg	5	20 75
Weber, Peter	Philipsburg	5	20 75
Anderson, John	Bellefonte	5	20 75
Blackford, Geo.	Bellefonte	5	20 75
Smith, Frederick	Bellefonte	5	20 75
Yeager, H. C.	Bellefonte	5	20 75
Witherite, Harvey	Snow Shoe	5	20 75

I do certify that the above is a correct list of all applicants for tavern and saloon license and appraised by the undersigned in Centre county up to date.

NELSON A. LUCAS, Appraiser.

Bellefonte, April 22, 1880. 22-4w

Professional Cards.

J. G. LOVE, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office in rooms formerly occupied by the late W. P. Wilson. ja171-tf

A. O. FURST, Attorney-at-Law, office in his new building, north side and opposite the Court House. 8 1-tf

CLEMENT DALE, Attorney-at-Law, office on High Street, second door from First National Bank. 8 42-tf

W. A. MORRISON, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa.

E. BLANCHARD. E. M. BLANCHARD.
E. & E. M. BLANCHARD, Attorneys-at-Law, v6 1-1y Allegheny Street, Bellefonte, Pa.

D. F. FORTNEY, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Special attention given to the collection of claims. Office over Reynolds & Co.'s Bank. v6n1-1y

C. T. ALEXANDER. C. M. BOWERS.
ALEXANDER & BOWERS, Attorneys-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office in Garman's building, opposite Court House. 6-1—9-3?

BUSH, YOCUM & HASTINGS, Attorneys-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office North-east corner of the Diamond, opposite First National Bank. 7 1-1y

STITZER & MAGEE, Attorneys-at-Law Office next to Garman's hotel, in Reynolds' bank, Bellefonte, Pa. May be consulted in English or German.

D. S. KELLER, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office on Allegheny street, first door south of Lyon's new store. 5 17-1y

J. H. VOSBURG, Attorney-At-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office in room formerly occupied by D. S. Keller, Esq., High street. 12-12-1y

Banks and Bankers.

R. C. HUMES, Pres't. J. P. HARRIS, Cash'r.
FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Bellefonte, Allegheny Street, Bellefonte, Pa. v6n1-1y

Agricultural Implements.

ALEXANDER & CO., BELLEFONTE, PA.

Knowing of the want long felt by farmers of having a place at which, and responsible parties from whom, they can purchase all kinds of implements used by them, and at which they can always find a full supply of repairs, we have concluded to connect with our Lime and Coal business an

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENT AND SEED STORE,

At which we will always be prepared to furnish anything that a farmer may want in the shape of Agricultural Implements, such as Threshers and Separators, to be run by horse power or steam, Clover Hullers and Cleaners, Harvesters, Combined Reapers and Mowers, or single Machines, Grain Drills, with or without Fertilizer Attachments, Hay and Grain Rakes, Plows, Harrows, Cultivators, Corn Planters, Straw and Fodder Cutters, the CELEBRATED CONKLIN and CORTLAND WAGONS, the best in the market, together with everything in the shape of an Implement that a farmer may want.

We will purchase all kinds of

GRAIN AND CLEAN SEEEDS,

At market prices; furnish farmers with Plaster, Artificial Fertilizers, Grain, Grass and Garden Seeds, and will fill orders for Fruit and Ornamental Trees.

We manufacture the best lime in the State for Agricultural and Mechanical purposes.

We keep our Coal Yard stocked with the best

ANTHRACITE COAL,

And sell the same at the lowest market prices.

If any person wants anything in our line, and we do not have it, we will order it for him and it will only cost him manufacturer's price.

Call at our Store, in Haupt's Building, opposite the Bush House, near Depot, and inquire for what you want.

12-19-tf ALEXANDER & CO.

Book Store.

THE MODEL BOOK STORE,

BELLEFONTE, PENN'A

JOHN C. MILLER & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Books,
Fancy Goods,
Photograph Albums,
Stationery
Pocketbooks,
Gold Pens,
Wall Paper,
Umbrellas,
Window Shadows and Fixtures,
Toilet Sets
Fancy Chinaware
Japanese Goods,
Toys, Toys,
Cigars, Etc., Etc.

SCHOOL BOOKS FOR EVERY TOWNSHIP IN THE COUNTY

DAILY PAPERS & PERIODICALS

11-6

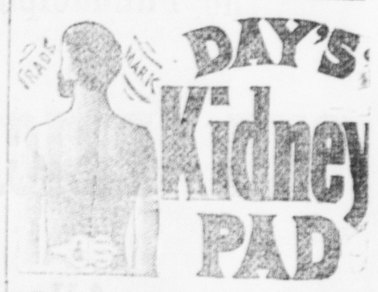
Medicinal..

ESTABLISHED. 1853. ESTABLISHED 1853.

F. P. GREEN,

DRUGGIST,

Bush House Building, Bellefonte. Keeps constantly on hand, or orders on short notice, a full assortment of everything usually kept in a first class drug store. Particular attention given to preparing physician's prescriptions, and family ceipes. 6 1 1y



CURES Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Catarrh of the Bladder, Dropsy, Gravel, Painful Urinating, High Colored Urine, Inability to Retain or Expel the Urine, PAIN IN THE BACK, Nervous Debility, Female Weakness, and all diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER, and URINARY ORGANS, when nothing else can.

LOOK OUT for imitations. Ask for, and take only the DAY PAD. For sale by Druggists, or sent by mail free on receipt of price, $2.00. Certificates of cures and our book "How a Life was Saved," sent on receipt of your address to 12-5 1y. F. POTTS GREEN, Wholesale Agt. for Centre Co.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,

Practical and Analytical Chemists.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

Dress Making.

PLAIN, FANCY SEWING —AND— LACE WORK.

MRS. JANE HALEY, opposite the Cemetery, takes this method to solicit from the people of Bellefonte work. Can do

PLAIN & FANCY SEWING OR LACE WORK.

Any person having such work to do can have it done well by Mrs. Haley, and at the same time help a worthy, poor woman. 3-tf

"A Biger Man than Old Probabilities."

Every recurring season brings some new wonder. The past winter we have been in the throes of the block puzzle till 13—15—14 has become as great a horror as the handwriting on the wall to the king. We are not emancipated from t e toils of that simple complication ere a prophet from the pines of Canada forecasts the weather. Not after the diurnal dalliance of General Myers, but with a glance of the eye and a stroke of the pen he prophesies weeks and months ahead. The "oldest inhabitant" looks aghast at such an usurpation of his meteorological prerogatives, and commences to study the almanac over again. This oracle is one Henry G. Vennor, of Montreal, who assumes for the nonce the title of weather quack. His first snow storm marched up like a well trained animal and howled on the appointed day. But the transparent weather bureau has not panned out well since the first prediction, and the disrespectful elements will probably renounce the self-elected leadership of the said Vennor. He is not the first prophet, nor yet the last, for the American people like to be fooled and are willing to pay well for it. The bulk of folk-lore for ages has been old women's couplets and quartrains on the weather. We can all repeat a dozen of these predictions off-hand, and so we merely speak of Mr. Vennor as another of the long line of prophets, and place him beside Trophinius, Obadiah and Mother Shipton. We give our readers a guide for the present month:

Yf ye wuddy-chukke seez hys shoddo inn ye sunne,
Six wokus of wynterre sholl have begunne;
Yf ye wuddy-chukke hys shaddo doe nott see,
Six wokes of sprynge like weather thayr sholl be.

That Queer Man, Peter Herdic.

There have been many queer and startling incidents in the career of Peter Herdic, both before and since his failure. Last week added another strange one to the list. While his alleged assets were being sold he was a prominent bidder, apparently as flush of money as a Vanderbilt or an Astor; and one could not help thinking that if he would be kind enough to make an assignment now his countless creditors would realize much more than they did from his bankruptcy; but a few weeks ago Mr. Herdic testified before the register in bankruptcy that he started on a trip through the South for his health with but fifteen dollars in his pocket. With tears streaming down his cheeks he told how his father in-law and Mr. J. Tome had come to his assistance, and how for weary months he subsisted on borrowed funds. He further pathetically related the sacrifices endured to obtain the necessities of life for his family; and yet yesterday he was wealthy enough to pay fancy prices for assets on which the assignees could not realize a cent on the $1,000. Yes, this is a queer world, and Peter Herdic is one of its decidedly queer inhabitants.—Gazette & Bulletin.

Qualifications.

An old lady walked into a lawyer's office in Detroit lately, when the following conversation took place:

Lady—"Squire, I called to see if you would take this boy and make a lawyer of him."

Lawyer—"The boy appears to be rather young, madam; how old is he?"

Lady—"Seven years, sir."

Lawyer—"He is too young, decidly too young; have you no older boys?"

Lady—"Oh, yes, I have several, but we have concluded to make farmers of the others. I told the old man I thought this little fellow would make a firstrate lawyer, so I called to see if you would take him."

Lawyer—"No, madam, he is too young yet to commence the study of the profession. But why do you think this boy is better calculated for a lawyer than your other sons?"

Lady—"Why, you see, sir, he is just seven years old to-day. When he was only five he'd lie like all nature; when he got to be six he was saucy and impudent as any critter could be, and now he'll steal any thing he can lay his hands on."

THEY like practical jokes down in Georgia. A clerk of the Georgia Central railroad was the partial victim of a good one recenily. Some steamship cooks stole a grindstone from a wharf, covered it with paper, put a layer of white paste over it, and topped off with some very pretty frosting. Then they gave it to the stewards, saying it was a cake, and they would have a raffle, at 25 cents a chance. Quite a number of the clerks were into the sport, and finally the cake was won by the railroad clerk, who in turn raffled it to the colored employees at ten cents a chance, and was won by one of the gang, who promised to divide the spoils between his comrades. He borrowed from one of the cooks a table knife, and surrounded by a large crowd began cutting through the frosted work until he struck the grindstone. Then the crowd got mad, and to say grindstone to them has the same effect that saying Waterloo or Sedan has on a Paris street crowd.

IT is twenty-seven years since the Hyde heirs began their quest of several hundred millions of dollars supposed to be awaiting them in the vaults of the Bank of England. The association has just now some 400 members, and the idea seems to be, as is usual in such cases, not only that in union there is strength, but the more claimants the merrier. Their agent, who has been abroad looking into the matter for some months—or trying to—reports that a lawsuit must be entered upon to get the information needful to make a fair start. A bill of discovery must be filed. As English chancery proceedings are proverbially interminable, the prospect is not encouraging for a speedy distribution. By the time they get their money it is barely possible that the natural increase of the heirs will considerably lessen the shares falling to each, even allowing for the accruing interest of the fund.

The Women's Defence.

[A correspondent from Boston, Mass., sends us the following incident of the Revolutionary war, and says that it was related to him twenty-five years ago by the grandfather of his wife, who was at that time ninety years old. It shows at least the peril which the people of that State believed themselves to be in at that time, although, as in this case, no doubt many times they were groundless. It also shows what a curse war is, in that it renders the whole people men, women and children—terror stricken, in addition to all other attendant horrors, and is a strong argument in favor of the universal prevalence of the doctrines of the Peace Society.—ED.]

A quarter of a century ago Captain Brooks, who was then ninety years old told me an incident of the old revolutionary times, which took place in his family. Said he, I recollect perfectly well, when I was a small boy, seeing a man coming rapidly on horseback, swinging his hat and crying out: "Turn out! Turn out! The red coats are killing off our men!"

This was the first news we had of the battle of Lexington. We were living in Grafton, near Worcester, Mass. My father and brother quickly mounted their horses and were off to the battle. My mother and sister were left without any man to protect them, and they were greatly afraid lest the Tories of Grafton should rise and kill them in the night. Accordingly, they took measures for their defence, with admirable calmness and judgment. Having one of those large and capacious fire-places, so common in those days, they hung upon the large crane two large caldrons, and filled them with water, and kept them through the night heated to a boiling heat. The pitchforks were also brought in from the barn and placed in readiness for use in case of need. Having prepared for their defence as best they could, the doors and windows being barred and barricaded, they anxiously awaited the anticipated attack of the Tories.

Their plan was, that when the Tories should break or bust open the door, the hot water from the caldrons should be profusely thrown in their faces, and then an energetic use of the pitchforks should repel and drive back their assailants.

Happily, their fears were not realized. The morning slowly dawned, and relieved them from their anxiety and peril.

"Throw Physic to the Dogs."

DR. HALL'S

ELECTRIC BELTS.

For the cure of all nervous diseases without the least derangement of the patient's habits or daily occupation. This appliance exerts powerful and beneficial influence throughout the whole frame: is applicable to either sex, and affords instantaneous relief in the following diseases:

Rheumatism,
Neuralgia,
Dyspepsia,
Lumbago,
General Debility,
Headaches,
Dizziness,
Impotency,
Spermatorrhœa,
Sexual Exhaustion,
Self Abuse,
Premature Decay, &c.

These belts are the result of the profound research and experiment in Electro-Therapeutics, and by their peculiar construction, a continuous "galvanic current" is generated, which permeates the whole frame, and especially envelops the suffering parts with its gentle influence. This current assimilates closer to the nervous fluid than anything known to medical science—hence its potency as a curative agent.

Most especially is the application of electricity in this form beneficial to those disorders arising from youthful indiscretion, sexual excess, or dissipations of any kind, whereby the procreative powers are lessened and impotency threatened. No false delicacy or sense of shame should prevent the sufferer, subject to restless nights, nightmare, dreams, palpitation of the heart, neuralgia, dimness of sight and other symptoms of nervous and physical debility, applying to the undersigned for relief.

These belts are light, perfectly flexible, and easily adjusted, all of which, together with their cheapness, renders them superior to any other form, for the application of electricity, medicinally.

☞ 50,147 of these belts were sold in Europe in the year 1876.

"Electricity is Life,"

And no remedy can be compared to it for the treatment of IMPOTENCE and loss of nervous vitality.

This belt is recommended by the most eminent physiologists of this country and Europe.

"Ingenious, wonderful—a deathblow to the old system of drugging."—London (Eng.) Lancet.

"You have perfected a great blessing on suffering humanity."—Dr. Richardson, London, England.

"Wonderful for the restoration of exhausted vitality."—Dr. Ferrier, London, England.

"I cheerfully recommend Dr. Hall's Electric Belt, and consider it one of the greatest blessings to mankind that has been put before the public."—Dr d'Barr, Paris, France.

Price of Electric Belt, - $ 6 00
do. do. (extra power) 10 00

Full instructions with each belt, when you order.

When ordering, state exact measurement round the waist.

Send money by postoffice money order, express or registered letter.

☞ ADVICE GRATIS. ☜

Address all orders to

DR. JAMES HALL & CO.,

(General Agents for the United States.)
329 West Fifteenth street, New York.

 State in what paper you saw this adv. 12-13m3

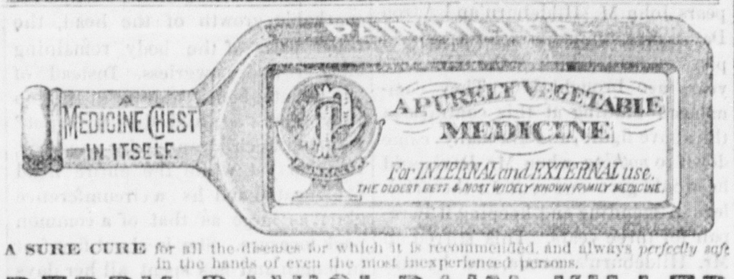
New Advertisements.

SILVER PLATED TABLE WARE.

The Knives, Forks and Spoons (tea or table) sent on by the NEW ENGLAND SILVER PLATE COMPANY, of New Haven, Connecticut, have always given the best of satisfaction, as they are made of the purest of metals, steel, plated with pure nickel and silver. Any one needing a supply out to write for a circular, or send 85 cents for a sample set of tea spoons. v12n1314



MEDICINE CHEST IN ITSELF.
A PURELY VEGETABLE MEDICINE
For INTERNAL and EXTERNAL use.
THE OLDEST BEST & MOST WIDELY KNOWN FAMILY MEDICINE.

A SURE CURE for all the diseases for which it is recommended, and always perfectly safe in the hands of even the most inexperienced persons.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

Is recommended by Physicians, Ministers, Missionaries, Managers of Factories, Work-Shops, and Plantations, Nurses in Hospitals—in short by everybody everywhere who has ever given it a trial.

IT HAS STOOD THE TEST OF FORTY YEARS' TRIAL.

PAIN KILLER should have a place in every factory, machine-shop, and mill, on every farm and plantation, and in every household, ready for immediate use not only for accidents, cuts, bruises, sores, etc., but in case of sudden sickness of any kind.

PAIN KILLER is the well-tried and trusted friend of all who want a sure and safe medicine which can be freely used internally or externally without fear of harm and with certainty of relief.

Its price brings it within the reach of all; and it will annually save many times its cost in doctors' bills. For sale by all druggists at 25c. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, Providence, R. I.

NICHOLS, SHEPARD & CO., Battle Creek, Mich.
Established in 1848. ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

"VIBRATOR"

Threshing Machinery and Portable and Traction Engines.

THE STANDARD of excellence throughout the Grain-Raising World.

MATCHLESS for Grain-Saving, Time-Saving, Perfect Cleaning, Rapid and Thorough Work.

INCOMPARABLE in Quality of Material, Perfection of Parts, Thorough Workmanship, Elegant Finish, and Beauty of Model.

MARVELOUS for vastly superior work in all kinds of Grain, and universally known as the only successful Thresher in Flax, Timothy, Clover, and all other Seeds.

Astonishingly Durable and wonderfully simple, using less than half the usual gears and belts.

PORTABLE, TRACTION, and STRAW-BURNING STEAM-ENGINES, with special features of Power, Durability, Safety, Economy, and Beauty entirely unknown in other makes. Stenm-Power Outfits and Steam-Power Separators a specialty. Four sizes of Separators, from six to twelve horse power; also two styles Improved Mounted Horse Powers.

Thirty-Two Years of Prosperous and Continuous Business by this house, without change of name, location, or management, furnishes a strong guarantee for superior goods and honorable dealing.

CAUTION! The wonderful success and popularity of our VIBRATOR Machinery has driven other machines to the wall; hence various makers are now attempting to build and palm off inferior and mongrel imitations of our famous goods.

BE NOT DECEIVED

by such experimental and worthless machinery. If you buy it, insist on the "Original" and the "Genuine" from us.

☞ For full particulars call on our dealers, or write to us for illustrated Circulars, which we mail free. Address NICHOLS, SHEPARD & CO., Battle Creek, Mich.

FANCY SILKS,
BLACK SILKS,
SATINS,
VELVETS,
BROCADES,
WEDDING OUTFITS,
DRESS GOODS,
CASHMERES,
BLACK GOODS, PRINTS,
PERCALES,
LINENS and COTTONS,
DRESS MAKING,
MANTLES,
CLOAKS,
SUITS,
SHAWLS,
INFANTS' WEAR,
BOYS' WEAR,
GIRLS' WEAR,
CLOAKINGS,
BLANKETS,
WOOLENS,
HANDKERCHIEFS, TRIMMINGS,
GLOVES,
HOSIERY,
Underwear in Muslin or Merino, etc.

DRY GOODS
BY MAIL OR EXPRESS.

OUR MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT is now so systematized, and in charge of such thoroughly competent and experienced hands, that persons unable to visit our store can do their shopping by writing us for samples or goods, with the assurance of getting them at the same prices as if buying in person. We carry an average stock of about half a million of dollars, all bought for prompt cash in the markets of Europe as well as in this country. Try us, and see how cheaply and quickly you can get what you want by mail or express. When in town we shall be pleased to have you call on us.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE OR SAMPLES.

COOPER & CONARD,
IMPORTERS AND RETAILERS,
Ninth and Market Streets,
PHILADELPHIA.
Established 1852. Mention this paper.

BRIGHT, ATTRACTIVE, CHEERFUL.
Mrs. Julia McNair Wright's New Book,
The COMPLETE HOME

Full of Practical Information.
The Young Housekeeper's Guide.
The Experienced Housekeeper's Friend

House-Keeping, Cooking, Dress, Accidents, Sickness, Children, Company, Marriage, Religion, Morals, Money, Family Government, and a multitude of other topics fully treated. Tells how to make the home Beautiful and Happy.

"A book of more practical utility will seldom, if ever, be found outside of inspiration."—Christian Advocate.

NEEDED in every city home by rich and poor, in all country homes by young and old. Fine paper, clear type, beautiful binding, splendid illustrations. Nearly 600 pages. Low price. Sells rapidly.

AGENTS WANTED. Liberal Commission. Description and terms free. Address J. C. McCURDY & CO., Philadelphia, Pa. 14-tf

J. H. MORRISON,

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Representing a number of the Best and Safest companies. Horses insured against Theft, death, or accident.

Office in the Conrad House with DAVID W FORTNEY, Esq. v9n14

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

☞ Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically dured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.

Address the Publishers,

THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO.,
41 Ann St., New York; P. O. Box, 4586.
12-13-1y

MINING STOCK FOR SALE.

The Carbonate Gold and Silver Mining Company, of Leadville, Col., own more valuable Gold and Silver Mines than any other Company in the State. The stock is ten dollars per share, full paid up, and non-assessable. They now offer a limited number of shares for sale through the undersigned, at $2.00 per share. References and information cheerfully given. Direct all orders and communications to M. BOYD, 144 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. P. O. Box 1064 12-12-1y

H. C. WEAVER'S

Cuban Cigar Store,

(Under First National Bank.)

BELLEFONTE, PENNA.,

Keeps constantly on hand a large stock of

Cigars of Every Quality to suit the country trade, manufactured by him from selected stock. Also a large assortment of

SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCOS.

SNUFF AND PIPES.

In fact, every kind of Smokers' Articles.

Dealers will consult their interest by calling on him before purchasing elsewhere.

He cannot be undersold, his motto being "Quick Sales and Small Profits." v12n11tf H. C. WEAVER,

Waters Pianos & Organs

BEST MADE. Warranted Six years. NEW PIANOS, Stool and Cover, $160 upward. New ORGANS, $45, $50, $60, $75, upward. Illustrated Catalogue free. AGENTS WANTED. Second hand instruments at Bargains. HORACE WATERS & CO., 826 Broadway, N.Y. 16-4t

FITS Dr. Lascelle's English Remedy

unlike the many so-called preparations for this disorder which only relieve while used by the patient, CURES PERMANENTLY, and has been endorsed in this respect for the past 20 years by the leading medical authorities in Europe. NO CHARGE made to give it a fair test, as Dr. Lascelles undertakes to send each suffering applicant a FREE package on their forwarding name and post office address to his Sole Agents in U. S. and Canada, Messrs. SLOCUM & CO., No. 4 Cedar st., N.Y. 16-4t

On 30 Days Trial

We will send our ELECTRO-VOLTAIC BELTS and other Electric Appliances on trial for 30 days to those suffering from Nervous Debility, Rheumatism, Paralysis or any diseases of the liver or kidneys, and many other diseases. A sure cure guaranteed or no pay. Address VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich. 16 4t

Wilson & McFarlane--Hardware.

WILSON, M'FARLANE & CO.

SPRING HAS COME.

KALSOMINE

OF ALL SHADES

On Hand for Immediate Use.

A FULL LINE OF

Wall, Paint & Dust Brushes

READY MIXED PAINTS,

GARDEN SPADES, SEEDS,

AND EVERYTHING ELSE IN THE HARDWARE LINE.

HUMES' BLOCK, ALLEGHENY STREET

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Medical.

BENSONS CAPCINE | CAPCINE | POROUS PLASTER

BACK ACHE IS AT ONCE CURED BY

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS.

IT IS THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY THAT NEVER FAILS.

Over 2000 Druggists have signed a paper stating that Physicians say they are in every way superior to the ordinary slow-acting Porous Plasters used for this purpose.

13-4t

Hotels

CENTRE COUNTY FARMERS HOME.
THE BUSH HOUSE.
Prices to Suit the Times.

Improved Stabling and Careful Hostlers. Low Special Rates for Jurymen and Witnesses. Cleanliness, Comfort and Table unexcelled.

NO DISCRIMINATION

against the Producers, than whom none are more worthy, or more entitled to attention. The Bush House having over three times the capacity of other hotels, there is no occasion or disposition to place the guests in attic rooms. This accounts for its growing Local Trade. We do not trust your horses to the care and profit of parties disconnected with the ho el.

J. H. MYERS, Proprietor.
12-4 tf.

COLUMBIA HOUSE,

Nos. 111 and 113 N'th Broad Street (above Arch

PHILAD'A.

Opposite Academy of Fine Arts; three squares from Academy of Music; one square from Public Buildings and Masonic Temple.

18-1y JOEL BUTTON, Proprietor

Tape Worm

INFALLIBLY CURED with two spoons of medicine in two or three hours. For particulars address with stamp, H. EICKHORN, No. 4 St. Mark's Place, New York, 12-3w

HOPE FOR THE DEAF

Garmore's Artificial Ear Drums

PERFECTLY RESTORE THE HEARING and perform the work of the Natural Drum Always in position, but invisible to others. All conversation and even whispers heard distinctly. Refer to those using them. Send for descriptive circular. GARMORE EAR DRUM CO., CINCINNATI, O

NOTICE.—The copartnership heretofore existing between DANIEL P. SHOPE and JACOB B. SHOPE, of Boggs township, Centre county, in the farming business, was dissolved on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1880.

April 9, 1880. 15-3t DANL P. SHOPE.

Watchmaker.

WATCHMAKER'S
REMOVAL.
F. C. RICHARD

takes this opportunity to inform his friends that he has removed to the building opposite Bush's Arcade, next door to Deschner's gun store, on High street.

At his new store he has increased facilities for doing business, and guarantees entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage. Clocks, watches and jewelry repaired in short notice. 7-8-tf

Insurance.

INSURANCE.

INSURANCE effected on all kinds of Properties, in Companies of undoubted strength and security, at standard rates.

INSURE AGAINST LOSS AND DAMAGE BY FIRE AND LIGHTNING.

9 9-1y. GEORGE L. POTTER,
(Furst's Building.) High-street, Bellefonte

PAINTERS.

DOAK & LONBERGER,

Painters, Paper Hangers and Kalsominers will attend promptly to all orders in their line of business addressed to them by mail or left at the REPUBLICAN office. 9 28-1y

Bellefonte Republican.

By EDWARD T. TUTEN.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Correspondents should write upon but one side of the paper, and avoid the use of pale or fancy inks.

Local Department.

—Staaw hats at the Bee Hive.

—Soda fountains will fizz up shortly, so-da say.

—A good child's suit at Lyon & Co.'s for $2.00.

—The borough roads are now in excellent condition.

—Mr. C. Derr now dishes up the "stimulants" at the Bush House.

—Every one who has a garden is making the dirt fly about this time.

—A heavy thunder storm scared the Huntingdonites a few nights ago.

—The finest brands of smoking and chewing tobaccos at Sechler & Co.'s.

—Go to Sechler's and lay in a stock of their choice groceries, and be happy.

—The captain of Co. D, Altoona, stands a good chance of being bounced for neglect of duty.

—Harry Green is determined to keep all the newest and best brands of cigars in the market.

—Pure confectioneries at Sechler's. A large and choice selection to please the boys and girls.

—Mr. Lawrence Brown has erected a substantial picket fence along his property on Thomas street.

—Seven ton of wild pigeons were shipped from Kane on Monday of this week to the eastern market.

—A superior quality of sugar-cured hams at Sechler & Co.'s. Sweet and palatable, and fresh.

—There is a good prospect for an abundant crop of wheat in all the surrounding counties, so it is reported.

—A large assortment of nobby spring hats at the Philadelphia Branch. Latest styles and low figures.

—Miss Lizzie Morrison, who has been visiting friends in Williamsport for several weeks, returned home on Thursday.

—The crop of hand organ men promises well for this season. Bellefonte has been honored with two visits thus far.

—Don't throw waste paper in the street. A flying newspaper caused a slight runaway on Spring street yesterday evening.

—Harry Green's cigar trade is increasing rapidly, and the reason is because he keeps a first class article, and smakers know it.

—Some individual, who will eventually get into trouble, is amusing himself by poisoning dogs in the vicinity of Linn street.

—Base ball scores have made their appearance in the dailies. The University nine at Lewisburg has been reorganized for the season.

—Will be opened at Mrs. N. K. Dare's on Saturday, May 1st, a splendid assortment of trimmed hats and bonnets. All are invited.

—We are afraid we are not going to get a chance to use our patent club on spring poets this season. We haven't seen one for a month.

—E. C. Humes, Esq., is erecting a commodious addition to the rear of the postoffice for the use of postmaster Johnston and his assistants.

—The Mountain City Band serenaded our young legal friend, H. A. McKee, Esq., on Thursday evening, at his residence in Spring township.

—Have you tried Collin's "Golden Thread" finecut, for sale at Sweeny's billard room? Matt Dooley says it is "boss," and Matt ought to know.

—Andrew Curtin, Jr., met with an accident at the iron works on Wednesday last. A heavy casting fell upon his foot, inflicting a painful wound.

—Schooling is over for the summer and the boys are now ready for an opportunity to crawl under the canvass and take a look at the elephant.

—A brindle cow attempted to jump over the picket fence into the school house yard on Thursday. She didn't get over, but tore the hide from her throat.

—The Democrat says that a son of Nathaniel Boob, of near Centre Hall, was thrown from a horse recently which resulted in the breaking of an arm.

—There are many kinds of black plaster, and farmers should be careful to get Onondaga, which is the best. For sale in Bellefonte only by Lawrence L. Brown.

—A colored man fell into the creek Thursday night from the board walk leading to the water works. As the boys say, he was "full as a goose," but came out entirely sobered up.

Court Proceedings.

Court convened at 10 o'clock Monday with Hon. John H. Orvis, presiding. A very large number of petitions were heard and motions disposed of, when court adjourned to 2 p. m. In the afternoon session the list of grand jurors was called over, when twenty-four persons, the whole number which had been summoned to attend as such answered to their names, a thing, Judge Orvis remarked, which he had never known to have occurred before in this county, and as twenty-four would be an illegal number for a grand jury he very generously offered to excuse one of their number. Mr. S. A. McQuistion, one of the twenty-four, relieved the court of this embarrassment by asking to be excused.

The court then directed the twenty-three to be sworn, after selecting Mr. Rishel as foreman, and after delivering to them a very lucid charge, they were sent out to tussle with the indictments District Attorney Fortney had prepared for them.

The old constables of their respective townships then made returns, and the new ones lately elected called up, and presented their bonds for approval by the court, and were sworn into office for one year.

The petitions for liquor license were then taken up, and the following named persons succeeded in obtaining license:

A. C. Farelkner, Philipsburg.
H. C. Yeager, Bellefonte.
Geo. Miller, Gregg township.
W. R. Teller, Bellefonte.
D. G. Bush, "
Daniel Garman, "
Fred Smith, "
Edward Brown, "
John Anderson, "
John H. Odenkirk, Patton twp.
David J. Moyer, " "
I. H. Rhule, " "
Perry H. Stover, Penn township.
Henry Robb, Walker township.
James Pasomore, Philipsburg.
John Ramsdall, "
Peter Weber, "
Robert Lloyd, "
Jeffery Hayes, Rush township.
A. Kohlbecker, Boggs township.
John G. Uzzle, Snow Shoe.

District Attorney Fortney had quite a number of indictments to lay before the grand jury Monday, covering eight different offences in the category of crime, under the laws of Pennsylvania—eight assault and battery cases, one adultery, three fornication and bastardy, one false pretense, two larceny, one malicious mischief, one surety of the peace, four violation of the liquor law—which would, under ordinary circumstances, occupy the time of the grand jury for a whole week, if it were not for the expeditious manner in which the district attorney dispatches business.

Meeting of the Agricultural Society

The stated quarterly meeting of the Agricultural Society of Centre county was held in the Court House Monday evening, President E. W. Hale in the chair, and Maj. R. H. Foster secretary pro tem. Clement Dale, chairman of the executive committee, stated that a change had been made in the superintendency of the fair grounds, by which it was expected some revenue would be derived from house rent.

Capt. Geo. M. Boal, Capt. John A. Hunter and Wm. Shortlidge were chosen delegates to attend the annual meeting at the State College to elect trustees.

Mr. Shortlidge addressed the meeting at some length on the apparent lack of interest of the farmers of our county in not attending the meetings, who thought it entirely proper that they should do so occasionally, at least, and make known their views on the subject of progressive agriculture.

John Rishel, Esq., Capt. George M. Boal, of Potter, and Albert Owen, of Philipsburg, also addressed the meeting. The executive committee was requested to hold meetings between now and the fair, after which the meeting adjourned.

Wallace to go to Harrisburg.

The Democratic Senatorial conferees of this district assembled in this place on Friday to chose a Senatorial delegate to the Harrisburg Democratic Convention.

The meeting was organized with Hon. C. Quigley in the chair, and George R. Barrett, Jr., secretary, after which Wm. A. Wallace, of Clearfield, J. F. Ramm, of Clinton, and J. P. Gephart, of Centre, were placed in nomination.

Centre had a rightful claim on the delegate, and her conferees made a sharp fight for her rights, but after a two hours' contest it became evident that the Wallace men had the game in their own hands, and Gephart and Ramm were withdrawn, which left Wallace the field, and he was declared the nominee.

—If you want real good, first class groceries, go immediately to Sechler & Co's. There is where you can get the purest and the best that can be found.

—Bauland & Newman keep the Bee Hive.

How They Keep Up the Roads in Chester County.

Chester countians have a peculiar as well as a novel way of keeping up their county roads. The other day, says an exchange, the public roads in East Bradford township were sold for three years, and are to be kept in perfect order during that time. Three years ago the entire public roads of the township brought $5,570, but on Monday about $3,250 was realized, or a gain over the sale of $2.500. It appears John M. Hildeburn and Aaron Davis were competitors for a certain piece of road, which at the sale three years ago brought $70. They commenced bidding at this contract at the above figure, and gradually came down to nothing, when Mr. Davis said he would give one cent for the privilege of mending and keeping it in repair for three years. This stirred up Mr. Hildeburn's mettle, and he said that he would give a dollar, and so the contestants crossed each other alternately until the contract was knocked off to Mr. Hildeburn for the sum of $9. The laugh comes in just here, inasmuch as the lucky purchaser will be compelled to keep the road in good repair for the next three years and pay $3 a year for the privilege of doing so, and also pay his share of roads taxes in the bargain.

Summer Schools.

Miss Rosa A. Woods opened a private school in the principal's room of the public school building on Monday morning last, and respectfully invites the patronage of those having children to send. Miss Woods is one of our most thorough and competent instructors, and her labors in the past have always been crowned with success and given entire satisfaction. All pupils entrusted to her care will receive the closest attention, and all the duties of her position as teacher will be faithfully performed.

Miss Lizzie Campbell, teacher of school No. 5, and Miss Annie McCafferty, of school No. 8, have also opened a private school for the summer, in the same building. These young ladies are both experienced and competent teachers, well qualified to fill the positions, and worthy the confidence of parents who have children to instruct. These summer schools are greatly to be encouraged, as a great many children who for various reasons are prevented from receiving instructions during the winter, have opportunities of doing so in the summer, and should not be denied the privilege.

Death of Mrs. Julia Loeb.

Mrs. Julia Loeb, widow of the late Anselm Loeb, for many years a resident of Bellefonte, died on Friday morning last, at the residence of her son-in-law, Colonel Isaac May, 1535 North Tenth street, Philadelphia. She was the mother of Ferdinand and Moses Loeb, for a number of years well-known butchers of this place. Her body was sent here for interment, and was buried by the side of her husband in the private burying ground on Logan street, owned by the family, on Monday.

Saw Mill Burned.

A sawmill at north Houtzdale, owned and operated by Hoover, Hughes & Co., of Philipsburg, was totally destroyed by fire early on Sunday, the 18th. The mill was new, and had been in operation but a few weeks. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Loss not stated—partly insured.

—Look to your interest! Buy none but the genuine goods, and save money, which you can do by purchasing only at Powers & Son's, sign of the big shoe, where you can find the genuine French kid or Tampico goat shoe fairly represented, and sold from 25 to 50 cents per pair cheaper than at any other store in the county. All goods are exactly as represented. Powers & Son understand their business, consequently can sell you a boot or shoe on its merits or defects.

—I am the only dealer in Bellefonte selling Onondaga Plaster, and as it is proved to be the best in market by comparative analysis, farmers will do well to call and see me before buying any other. LAWRENCE L. BROWN.

—Altoona's knights of the razor and strop are endeavoring to establish uniform rates. They hone-ly want to set a fair price, and then will razor rumpus if any member cuts under.

—Mr. Charles R. Cromley and wife, formerly of this place, arrived in town yesterday, and expect to remain several days visiting among their friends. Charley is still located at Altoona.

—Samuel Lewins, at the Philadelphia Branch, is continually receiving new spring goods in gents' and boy's clothing. Call and examine the large stock.

—New Lanquedoc laces just received at Lyon & Co.'s.

—Go to the Bee Hive.

Twenty-four Years in Her Cradle.

The Lock Haven Journal, in its issue of the 23d inst., gives the following account of a young lady at Wolfes Store, this county, who has been confined to her cradle since birth, a period of twenty-four years.

At Wolfe's Store, Centre county, resides a family named Minich, which has for a member a young lady now aged 24 years, who has never been able to sit up a minute. From her infancy she was afflicted with a remarkable growth of the head, the other parts of the body remaining slender and powerless. Instead of the perietal bones uniting at the top they separated, and the "soft spot" common to children under one year, remains yet, while the entire head is elongated and has a circumference about as large as that of a common peck measure. She is about five feet in length and has spent all her days in the cradle. It is impossible for her to raise her head by any muscular exertion, and she requires the same attention that was necessary when a mere baby. She is quite sensible and converses with members of her own family, but is exceedingly averse to strangers. The eye of curiosity so often obtained upon unfortunate beings of this class, causes her to wince and blush and give other signs of uneasiness, showing a native sensitiveness. She seems to bide her wearisome situation with a resignation seldom found in the human kind.

—Miss Mary Evans, teacher at the Noll school, Curtin township, has just closed her school and is highly spoken of by the people in that vicinity—her friends and neighbors. Mr. H. Long, who had children in the school, speaks in the highest terms of praise of Miss Evans as a teacher. He says she is fully qualified to take any position in the profession, and could not fail to give entire satisfaction. Miss Evans has reason to feel proud of her work and the high esteem in which she is held by all the parents who have had children under her care for the last five months.

—This is court week, and jurors and others attending are notified that they will find the Garman House the most convenient, in location and otherwise, of any hotel in town. The proprietors will extend to you a hearty welcome, and furnish you with the best accommodations the house affords. Some extensive alterations have recently been made in this hotel and it is now better prepared to receive guests than ever before.

—A few of the citizens of Houserville school district are anxious to have a subscription school; but the majority are unconcerned in the matter. This should not be the case, for surely they do not want their children to grow up in ignorance, when it only costs four cents per day to send them to school. We hope they will consider the matter and send the little folks off on Monday morning.

—The Mt. Union brass band evidently started out before it was ripe. The Times says it made its first appearance last week, and that those who were treated to a serenade are awaiting their next visit with loaded shotguns. This "send off" will greatly encourage the boys—to quit.

—The Watchman associate thinks the curb market don't amount to much. We imagine he is itching to sail into a mess of smearcase, and will not recognize the importance of the market until some one brings in a cargo.

—Miss Macbride has just returned from Philadelphia with a large and carefully selected stock of millinery, which she is selling at lowest prices, and will be glad to have all her friends and customers call.

—Here is the McVeytown Journal's explanation of it: "Girls know only about one-quarter as much about courting as boys, because they have only one year in four in which they are allowed to practice."

—It is said that lightning rod agents will exhibit a superior quality of cheek this season. In that case it wouldn't be a bad idea for our citizens to mount a couple of brass howitzers on the front porch.

—Those who desire to purchase a spring suit or anything in the gentleman's furnishing line, shou'd remember that the Philadelphia Branch, Samuel Lewis, manager, is the place for tremendous bargains.

—The West Chester Republican says a hen in that vicinity laid an egg measuring eleven inches in length and eight inches in circumference. It don't say whether it killed the hen or not.

—Ladies who delight in flowers should use Green's house plant scentless fertilizer. It produces health, luxuriant growth. Price 25 cents, sufficient for twenty plants for one year.

Another Farmer Victimized.

Tramps are still operating in various parts of the county, and every two or three days we hear of some farmer being victimized. On the evening of April 10th a man called at the residence of Mr. W. F. Weaver, a short distance below Centre Hall, and asked to be accommodated over night, saying that he was broken down and tired and knew of no place to go. Mr. Weaver saw at a glance that he was a tramp, but as he looked and appeared to be honest, he gave him permission to stop. After supper he helped to do up the chores about the premises, and made himself generally agreeable.

The next morning the visitor complained of feeling sore: that he did not feel able to go on, and asked Mr. W. to be kind enough to allow him to stay till Monday, which request was cheerfully granted. Monday morning Mr. Weaver, as is his custom, rose early, and in passing the room to which he assigned the tramp the night before, saw, through the open door his dilapidated garments lying on the floor in a pile. He stepped to the door and looked in, and was not a little surprised to find the bed unoccupied.

The situation was soon after explained, however, by the discovery that the honored guest had risen early, robed himself in his host's best suit of broadcloth, and skipped out, leaving his tattered wardrobe as security. There is probably not an honest tramp in ten, and so long as farmers take them in and allow them liberties, just so long will they be imposed upon. The only right way to do is to drive them off the premises immediately; or should you conclude to give one his supper, stand behind his chair with a loaded shotgun to see that he commits no depredations.

Confirmation Services in the Episcopal Church.

Tuesday evening the Rt. Rev. M. A De Wolfe Howe, Bishop of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania for the Protestant Episcopal Church, was present at St. John's P. E. Church, in this place, and administered the Episcopal rite of confirmation to eight persons, whose names are as follows: Mr. Charles Barrett, Misses Amanda Armor, Minnie Garman, Carrie Vosburg, Jennie Reynolds, Kate Jackson, Minerva Wilkinson and Katie Morgan.

Previous to administering confirmation, the usual evening service was held, followed by a sermon from Bishop Howe, of unusual power and practical value, the text being from Matthew XXII—2: "And when he had agreed with the laborers, he sent them into the vineyard." We regret that our limited space does not permit us to give at least an abstract of this admirable discourse.

The church was crowded in every part, a number of persons who were in attendance being unable to find seats. Several clergymen, with the Rector of the church, the Rev. John Hewitt, occupied the chancel.

Concerning Decoration Day.

The following general order, in regard to Decoration Day, has just been issued from the National headquarters of the G. A. R.:

The 30th day of May next occuring on Sunday, Saturday, the 28th, will be observed as memorial day by the Grand Army of the Republic, at which time will be paid the customary honors to our departed comrades who fell in defence of our flag and country. Their noble sacrifices will draw us about their honored graves, where with tearful eyes and loving hands we will once more lay our annual floral tribute on their last resting place.

The Commander in Chief recommends that the ministry be invited to deliver appropriate discourses on the Sabbath preceding Memorial Day. Many a weary and sad heart may be cheered by this pious reference to the noble deeds of those who went down in the storm of battle, or died after days of long and painful suffering in the hospital.

The Grand Army of the Republic extend a cordial invitation to the people generally to participate in paying a grateful tribute to the memory of the heroic men who were obedient to their country's call, and who testified their allegiance thereto by the sacrifice of their lives.

Musical Matters.

Mr. Richard Willis, of New York, one of the finest cornet players in the country, has been engaged by the Mountain City Band, of this place, as leader and instructor. Many of our citizens are not unfamiliar with Mr. Willis, he having made one or two trips to Bellefonte with theatrical troupes in charge of the band and orchestra. The Mountain City is already one of the best musical organizations in Central Pennsylvania, and under the new leader we shall expect to see it soon take its place in the foremost rank.

—Just opened, a big line of millenery, flowers, silks, satin, broche edge ribbons, brocade silks, at Lyon & Co.'s.

—Just received, the largest and handsomest stock of embroideries from 1c a yard up at Lyon & Co.'s.

—Kearney has at last been consigned to the lockup, but the people keep on going to Sechler's for their groceries just as though Kearney had never lived. The people have discovered where they can purchase the best and purest groceries in the county, and now nothing can prevent them from going regularly to Sechler's.

—Call at Geo. W. Thomas's, Brown's corner, Allegheny and Bishop street, who has just received a fresh lot of mackerel, prices as follows: Quarters, $1.88; kits, 95 cents. Weight and quality guaranteed. Also, full line of groceries, tobaccos, glassware, queensware, leather and shoe findings. Call and price goods.

—If you want shoddy goods, don't go to the Philadelphia Branch. They only keep the finest goods at this establishment. Everything new and in the spring style.

—An amaryllis, one of the most beautiful of the plant creation, with eight developed blossoms, may be seen in the window of Mrs. John G. Love's residence, on Linn street.

—Just opened, a big lot of hats at Lyon & Co.'s from 35c up.

—The cheapest store in the county is the Bee Hive.

—Just received, a big line of ladies' undergarments at Lyon & Co.'s.

—Full sets of undergarments at Lyon & Co.'s.

—Our stock of woolens for the spring and summer season of 1880 just received. Leave your orders now. Respectfully, MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

—A good shoe for $1.00 at Lyon & Co.'s; a good fine dress shoe for $1.25 at Lyon & Co.'s; a good button shoe for $1.25 at Lyon & Co.'s; the finest and best quality of shoes at Lyon & Co.'s—warranted work.

—One of the most urgent demands of our time is a system of education which shall train the young to apply their school learning. At the Pennsylvania State College practical instruction in agriculture, horticulture botany, zoology, mechanics, chemistry etc., is given, and thus theory in the class room is applied and enforced by experience in the field and laboratory. Spring session opens April 9th. For catalogue and full information address the Business Manager, State College, Centre county, Pa. 14ml

CUT this out and hand it to your neighbor
BROWN'S DIABETIC CURE.
Established 8 years ago at Green Springs Sandusky county, Ohio, continues to be the wonder of the age in its marvelous cures of Diabetes, Diuresis, Gravel, and all forms of Kidney and Bladder Diseases. To be convinced come or send for a circular and sworn testimony. J. L. BROWN, M. D., Physician in charge.
O. J. SHUTTS, } Trustees.
S. H. SMITH, } 11-15-1y

HAPPY VOICES. (Copyrighted.)
How glad happy voices,
Like sweet Sabbath bells,
O'er the hills and the vales,
The glad story tells of the celebrated STAR PARLOR ORGAN, manufactured by Alleger, Bowlby & Co., Washington, N. J. The finest organ for less money than any in the United States. Write to them.

MARRIED.

BARNER—SHEARER.—April 20, 1880, at the Lutheran parsonage in Bellefonte, by Rev. S. E. Furst, Mr. Nathaniel J. Barner and Miss Sadie Ellen Shearer, both of Salona, Clinton county, Pa.

STONE—RESIDES.—At the Lutheran parsonage in Bellefonte, March 25, 1880, by Rev. S. E. Furst, Mr. Henry Stone, of Boalsburg, and Miss Nancy J. Resides, of Buffalo Run, Centre county, Pa.

HECKMAN—MARKLE.—April 22, 1880, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. Geo. P. Hartzell, Mr. John L. Heckman, of Hublersburg, and Miss Ellen S. Markle, of Walker township, Centre county, Pa.

THOMAS—SCOTT.—April 22, 1880, at the parsonage near McAlevy's Fort, by Rev. J. M. Adair, Mr. L. C. Thomas, of Pine Grove, Centre county, and Miss M. E. Scott, of Neff Mills, Huntingdon county, Pa.

The Markets.

BELLEFONTE, April 27, 1880.

Competition in the mercantile trade of our town continues to attract buyers from remote parts of our county, which is a good sign, that goods can be bought at bottom prices.

GRAIN.

The wheat market of Bellefonte has been unsettled during the past fortnight in consequence of prices declining at the seaboard; but there has been a decided improvement in the last two or three days, and prices are higher.

At Philadelphia red wheat, $1.32; amber, $1.34; white, $1.35. Other grains, no change worthy of note. In Bellefonte hay is decidedly higher.

White wheat per bushel	$1 20
Amber wheat	1 20
Rye per bushel	60
Corn, cob	45
Corn, shelled	50
Oats new	40
Cloverseed	4 00
Flour, retail, per barrel	6 75@7 00
Flour, wholesale	6 75@7 00

HAY AND STRAW.

Hay, choice timothy, per ton	$24 00
Hay, mixed, per ton	22 00
Long rye straw, bundled, per ton	6 50
Short straw per ton	5 50@6 50

PLASTER.

Cayuga, ground, per ton	$ 7 50
Nova Scotia, ground, per ton	10 00

Provision Market.

Corrected daily by Valentines & Co.

Apples, dried, per pound	5
Cherries, dried, per pound, seeded	10
Beans per quart	8
Fresh butter per pound	25
Chickens per pound	5
Cheese per pound	20
Country hams per pound	9
Hams, sugar cured
Bacon	7
Lard per pound	7
Eggs per doz	12½
Potatoes per bushel	30
Dried beef	20
Wilson's pressed beef per pound	25
Canned tomatoes per can	10
Lemons per doz	40
Dried sweet corn per pound
Small Onions per quart	